Walking with the Apostles - Saints Peter and Paul

The Region 7 Health Ministries team is preparing a new walking program this year. It will begin before Lent on the weekend of March 1st & 2nd and end at Pentecost the weekend on June 7th & 8th. This year our route will take us to Rome as we walk with the apostles, specifically Saints Peter and Paul. As before, our walk will be a chance to combine healthy habits (walking and exercise) with prayer and meditation.
Participants will again turn in weekly tally of physical activity counting the miles walked, counting every 15 minutes of physical activity as one mile or both!
We'll have a box in the back of the church to drop your weekly mileage records. Watch upcoming bulletins for further details.

Have you registered?

If you attend Mass at St. Joe's but have never registered as a member of the parish, please consider doing so. It's easy...just call the rectory at 228-9272.

Pastor's Corner

The Olympic motto is Citius, Altius, Fortius, which is Latin for "Swifter, Higher, Stronger". The motto was proposed by Pierre de Coubertin on the creation of the International Olympic Committee in 1894. De Coubertin borrowed it from his friend Fr. Henri Didon, a Dominican priest who, amongst other things, was an athletic enthusiast. The motto was introduced in 1924 at the Olympic Games in Paris. A more informal but well known motto of the Olympics, also introduced by De Coubertin, is "The most important thing is not to win but to take part!" De Coubertin got this motto from a sermon by the Bishop in Pennsylvania during the 1908 London Games.

The Winter Olympics began in Sochi, Russia last weekend. I must admit that I try to watch as much of the Olympic Games as I can and I'm never disappointed by the competition, the energy, the youthfulness. Yes, the athletes are competing for the gold, silver, and bronze; but they are also ambassadors of peace, showing the world that men and women from around the globe can come together, intermingle, communicate, and build friendships that last a life time.

Both Sirach and Matthew in our scripture this weekend tell us about some of God's commands. If we learn them and follow them, they will be mottoes that will lead us to new life, to spiritual energy, to a joyful, happy life. They are a blessing and a gift from God. They enable us to choose values that will guide us to love God and our neighbor. They speak to us about what it means to walk and run as a child of God. The teachings of Jesus and the teachings of the Church give us guidance and instruction in how we are to live, they keep our feet on the path of life and on a path of holiness. When we follow the commandments we participate and take part in making this world a more loving, caring place for not only ourselves but also for our neighbors. The commandments, the teachings of Jesus and the Church help train our minds, hearts, and bodies so that our world will be a place of peace, love, and joy.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 16, 2014

What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard,
and what has not entered the human heart,
what God has prepared for those who love [God],
this God has revealed to us through the Spirit.

2014 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Next weekend, the Catholic Ministries Appeal will kick off throughout the Archdiocese. The theme of the 2014 CMA is "In your name . . . local ministries with Christ at the center."

The CMA is our opportunity to support the work of six vital ministries and their many programs, all of which operate right here in our Archdiocese. Also, if we exceed our parish goal for the CMA, 50% of our overage comes back to the parish to be used for the poor. Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's CMA. For more information, please visit CatholicAppeal.info.
