Pastor's Corner

On this Fourth Sunday of Lent the Church celebrates “Laetare” Sunday. This designation comes from the Latin word for “Rejoice” which is the first word of our Entrance Antiphon for this Sunday. We are mid-way through out Lenten journey of prayer, fasting and alms giving. As we continue our Lenten journey the church encourages us to be strengthened in our Lenten commitment to turn away from sin and to prepare our hearts to renew our Baptismal promises at Easter.

Do you remember the words to the song Amazing Grace? “Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me. I once was lost, but now am found was blind but now I see.” The inspiration for this hymn came from today’s gospel reading. It was written by an English preacher named John Newton who experienced a dramatic conversion in his life.

In his early adult years John Newton was involved in slave trading, selling people for money. Newton saw nothing wrong with this practice. But when he came to know Jesus in his life Newton was confronted with the truth that all people are children of God. He soon turned away from his sinful practices and made the words of the blind man cured in John’s gospel his own—“I once was blind, but now I see.”

Even though John Newton was not physically blind, he realized that he was morally and spiritually blind. This is a key point for our reflection because there are many ways that we can be blind through bad habits, selfishness, stubbornness, cynicism or a failure to see how blest we really are by God. During this Lenten season we are called to turn away from the darkness of sin and to live in the light of the Lord.

This is important because things are not always what they seem to be. I’m sure you have heard the proverb, “You can’t judge a book by its cover.” In our First Reading today we encounter Samuel, someone who does not judge by appearance but looks into the heart. Jesse felt sure that Samuel would be more interested in one of his older son’s to be anointed king. Yet, God had chosen David, the youngest, to be the king.

In a similar way, the Pharisees were so sure that Jesus was not the Messiah that they made it their business to discredit Jesus with the hopes of getting rid of him. Because of their hardness of heart the Pharisees were not able to celebrate the healing miracle that the blind man received from Jesus. They lived in darkness, unable to see that Jesus was the true light of the world. It is His life and love that enables us to break out of the darkness of our lives.

The Light of Faith helps us to see with the eyes of goodness, justice and truth. With the Light of Faith we are able to stand in the midst of suffering, confusion or doubt and say “God is here.” This week ask yourself: “Where is the darkness in my life that keeps me from experiencing the Light of Christ?” “How is your life different when you see with the Light of Faith?”

From March 29-April 1st I will be directing a parish mission at my home parish of St. Joseph’s in Wapakoneta, Ohio. In April the parish will celebrate the 175th anniversary of their founding and invited me to lead their Lenten mission. Your prayerful support will be appreciated!

Fr. Angelo

The popular prayer to St.

Peregrine seeking the saint's intercession for those who have cancer will be held on Sunday, April 13. The Prayer begins at 2:00 pm in the Chapel at Maria Stein Shrine. Prayer will include Scripture, music, two testimonials, and veneration of the relic of St. Peregrine. All are welcome-all ages, all faiths. Especially welcome are those who have cancer, their families, and medical personnel. The prayer is expected to take about one hour after which there will be refreshments and conversation in the gathering space. Maria Stein Shrine is located at 2291 St. Johns Rd. Maria Stein.

Lenten Scripture Study Who Do You Say That I Am?

From Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium: "The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus.... I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting him encounter them..."

There are Christians whose lives seem like Lent without Easter..."

Join us in an opportunity to meet Jesus anew in the unique images presented by each of the gospel writers.

Walking with the Apostles

Lent is not always about giving up something to sacrifice it is also a time to re-enforce positive activities that benefit Body, Mind and Spirituality. Many of you are already involved with exercise programs and what you are presently doing can be used for this Lenten program. We are at the 4th Sunday in Lent and 15% of the way from Jerusalem to Rome. The members of the Health Care Ministry are impressed with how well the Region 7 parishioners are doing walking with Saints Peter and Paul on their final journey to Rome. Keeping the scriptures in mind as a way of prayer and meditation during exercise is a holistic way to prepare for the Easter and Pentecost Celebrations. Keep up the good work.

Our reflection for this week is from 1 Samuel 16:7- "Not as man sees does God see, but because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart."

Remember to tally your physical activity by counting the miles walked, jogged, ran, or time exercised (15 minutes of physical activity as one mile). Note your tally each week using the forms on the table in the back of church and drop them in the box provided or email them to Beth at banderson1nana.4@roadrunner.com.

Total miles this week 79, total to date 448.
