Walking with the Apostles

Joy is in the air, the sun and rain are making the flowers and trees bloom with new life. What better way to enjoy God's gift of nature than to be outside and walking, playing, using our bodies and adding up the miles (every 15 minutes of exercise is 1 mile) with Peter and Paul to Rome. As we participate in our routine workouts and maybe our not so routine workouts let's keep in mind the joy of the season and in the Risen Christ.

Luke 24:34 "The lord is truly risen, alleluia. To him be glory and power for all the ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia."

Total miles this week 221, total to date 1142. We are 38.7% of the way to Rome. Don't forget the walk ends at Pentecost so keep the miles coming.

Divine Mercy Sunday April 27

The Second Sunday of Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday. Copies of the Novena prayers are available in back of church. The celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday will be at Emmanuel Church and will begin at 12:45 PM with confessions and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by Mass at 2:15 PM. Our afternoon of prayer will end with the 3:00 PM Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Furthering our Faith through Film

We will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday next week, so why not join us on Friday, April 25 to watch a film about St. Faustina, the humble nun who received extraordinary revelations from our Lord Jesus about God's loving message of divine mercy. We will meet at 1:00pm in the school and a light lunch will be served. As usual, all are most welcome! If you have questions, please call Bobby at 435-4858. We hope you can make it!

Pastor's Corner

Our gospel reading for Easter Sunday begins where Good Friday ended—in a cemetery. “Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb.” (John 20:1) In many cultures it is a traditional practice to go to the cemetery on Easter Sunday to remember loved ones and to live in the hope of the resurrection.

There was once a six year old boy named David who was taking a walk with his grandmother. On their way home, they decided to take a detour through the local cemetery, stopping every once in a while to read the headstones. Grandma explained that the first date on the tombstone was the day the person was born and the second date was the day the person died.

“Why do some of the tombstones only have one date?” David asked. “Because those people haven’t died yet,” his Grandma explained. David was obviously stunned by his Grandma’s explanation because that night he couldn’t stop thinking about their visit to the cemetery. “Mommy,” he said with wide eyes. “Some of the people buried in the cemetery aren’t even dead yet!” (Don’t Stop Laughing Now, 2002)

Leave it to a six year old to put a different twist on life and death. When we stop and think about it the gift of Easter puts the greatest twist of all on life. Easter says that all who are buried in Christ are not dead at all; for them life is changed not ended.

And yet, like Mary of Magdala, there are times when the Risen Jesus seems far from our eyes. Maybe it is because of sickness, injury, failure, loneliness, family difficulties or a loss through death that keep us from recognizing the Risen Lord. Sometimes the tears that come from grief or loss can blind us from seeing the Risen Lord. Other times in our race to find answers, like Peter and the Beloved Disciple, our minds are confused or distracted from seeing the truth.

It helps to remember where Jesus was when he walked the earth. The answer is found in our reading from the Acts of the Apostles. “Jesus went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” (10:38b) This is precisely where Jesus is found today; alive, at work in our world through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The gift of resurrection life means that the most powerful obstacle to our union with God has been overcome. As St. Paul says, “Nothing can separate us from the love of God.” Not even death itself. For the next fifty days we are entering a journey of discovery to see and to give witness to the presence of the Risen Lord among us.

Like the disciples we know how the story ends. This truth must strengthen us and enliven us to be people of hope. It’s like a friend of mine who likes to read mystery novels. But, instead of reading the book from start to finish he reads the last chapter first to see what happens to the villain. Then he goes back and reads the book from the beginning always prepared to say to the villain, “Don’t get too sure of yourself, I know that you will get what’s coming to you in the end.” Because of the resurrection of Jesus from the dead we all hold a different script in our hands. Through the gift of baptism we are glory bound and have the opportunity to share in God’s gift of eternal life. Happy Easter!
