Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

One of the first Catholic gestures that we learn is the sign of the cross. This ritual is a constant reminder to us of our belief in the Holy Trinity; God who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We begin our prayers with the affirmation that God is one and three and the realization that we share in the relationship of love that is found in the life of the Trinity.

The life of the Holy Trinity reflects a relationship of love between the three persons of the Trinity. Since God is revealed to us in a relationship of love, we in turn are invited to enter into this relationship of love and to reflect it in our day to day living. Our readings for this Sunday offer us a glimpse into the mystery of the nature of God and what life looks like when God draws near to us.

In the reading from the Book of Exodus we see that God loves us even in our sinful nature. In the passage just before today's reading we learn that Moses broke the tablets of the commandments of the Lord because he found the people of Israel worshipping a golden calf (Ex 32:1-10). Those shattered tablets symbolized the broken and sinful lives of the people. In spite of this reality God fulfills His covenant and reveals his nature as a God who is "merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." (Exodus 34)

God's nature is also revealed in our Gospel reading with the familiar passage which is sometimes seen at baseball games with the sign John 3:16, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." John makes it clear that God's love is for all people; a love so deep that God would be willing to send his son for the salvation of the world.

In spite of our sinfulness, God sent His only begotten son to teach us how to love and to bring us back into God's eternal embrace. We who are created in God's image and likeness are to live the same union of love that is found in the Trinitarian life of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Corinthian Community was not living in accord with this call for unity and so St. Paul admonishes them to mend their ways, to live in peace and to greet one another with a holy kiss. By following St. Paul's advice we can share in the love and peace of God. On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity we give thanks to God for the reconciling love of Jesus whose life we continue to receive through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Fr. Angelo

Father's Day Prayer

God our Father you govern and protect your people and shepherd them with a father's love. You place a father in a family as a sign of your love, care, and constant protection. May fathers everywhere be faithful to the example shown in the Scriptures: steadfast in love, forgiving transgressions, sustaining the family, caring for those in need.

Give your wisdom to fathers that they may encourage and guide their children. Keep them healthy so they may support a family. Guide every father with the Spirit of your love that they may grow in holiness and draw their family ever closer to you. Amen (Author Unknown)

Father's
