Catholics Come Home

The special Catholics Come Home Collection is being taken up at all Masses this weekend to support outreach to those who have drifted away from the Church.

Thank you for your generosity! If you did not have a chance to make your gift today, Catholic Come Home Collection envelopes are still available at the back of the church.

Plugged in to Amazing Grace

Overwhelmed or worn out by how busy your life can be? Perhaps you need to "pull the plug" on what is wearing you down and "plug in" to recharge your energy, hope and grace! Please join Fr. Angelo Anthony and Ms. Debra Wolf for an afternoon of reflection and renewal. This will be held at Trinity Center, 272 Bainbridge Street, on Sunday, Sept. 23 beginning with lunch at 12:30 p.m. Reservations are required by Sept 18th though there is no cost for the program (freewill donations will be accepted to offset the cost of lunch.) Please call Mary Wlodarski at 228-1223 or email her at pa_holytrinity@yahoo.com to reserve your place for this inspiring afternoon!

Pastor's Corner

This week the image of Stewardship offers us an anchor as we seek to respond to the call of Jesus to be his disciples. In the Letter of James we read: "What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works?" "If faith does not have works it is dead." In their Pastoral Letter on Stewardship, the U.S. Bishops note that "as Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord." What we see is that stewardship is a way of life an "attitude of the mind and heart that is expressed in action." "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." (1 Peter 4:10)

Next week we will spend time during Mass seeking input from all of the parishioners in Region 7 through a stewardship survey that will be handed out after communion. This will be an opportunity for everyone to reflect upon how we can individually share the gifts of time and talent that God has given us to strengthen the Body of Christ and to build a richer sense of community in our parishes.

This weekend there is a special collection for the Catholics Come Home initiative that will take place in the Archdiocese during the season of Advent and Christmas. This collection will help pay for advertising time on the local television stations during prime time viewing. On the local scene, there will be a variety of ways for each of us to be involved in inviting non-practicing Catholics to come home.

October 1-2, 2012 Archbishop Schnurr is hosting a Summit entitled Revitalizing the Domestic Church at the Dayton Convention Center. The Summit will gather pastors and various members of parish staffs to look at ways of strengthening the family. There will be presentations on the latest research on family and faith and how we can strengthen the church of the home. As Pope Benedict has stated "The new Evangelization depends largely on the domestic church...and is inseparable from the Christian family."

The archbishop has asked the parishes of Region 7 to take on the role of prayer support for the summit and has asked that there be continuous adoration of the Blessed Sacrament during the summit. We are looking for volunteers to make a commitment to participate in this time of Eucharistic Adoration from 9:00 A.M. October 1st until 5:00 P.M. on October 2nd. The Adoration will take place at Emmanuel Church. A security guard will be on site during the night hours of the Adoration for everyone's safety. Sign-up sheets are available in the back of church.

Finally, anyone who is working with children and young people in our parishes will need to participate in a new training program entitled Virtus. Please see the announcement in the bulletin regarding this program which will be offered on Sunday, September 30th for people working with children in the parishes of Region 7. You can also participate in the training programs offered by any parish in the archdiocese. For those who have never received training this program is required before you start volunteering. For those who have been previously trained you have up to one year to be recertified. There will be a second training session offered in Region 7 at a later date.
