For more information visit: www.IAmAMissionary.org.

Furthering Our Faith Through Film

Please make plans to join us for our next film on October 25. The title of the film will be announced in next week's bulletin. We'll meet at 1:00pm in the school cafeteria and a light lunch will be served. As usual, everyone is most welcome! Please call Bill at 672-8442 if you have any questions.

Prolife & Vocation Committees

We need a couple people to spearhead the Prolife and Vocation Committees. If you are a strong advocate for the sanctity of human life, this is a great way to put your faith into action. The focus of the Prolife Committee is to keep the parish informed of prolife issues and events.

Are you a strong believer in the need for vocations in the church? What are some ways we can promote vocations at St. Joseph?

The focus of the Vocation Committee is to keep our parish aware of and doing all we can to promote vocations.

Please call the rectory at 228-9272 or talk to Fr. Angelo or Fr. Ken to learn more about the Prolife or Vocation committees.

The parish needs your help!

Pastor's Corner

This week one of the Gospels for the weekday mass was the story of Jesus visiting Martha and Mary. They both love Jesus, but they express their love in different ways. One gets busy, and the other gets quiet.

St. Gregory explains this story to us in this way: Martha represents the active Christian life; she was a human doing. Mary represents the contemplative life; she was a human being. Both are important here on earth, but in heaven our doing will end, and only our being will be left with God.

Many of us struggle to find balance in our lives. In our society, busyness has reached epidemic proportions and some even consider it a mark of holiness. But if doing the Lord's work is not balanced by prayer and solitude, our souls may be in great danger. Busyness can sidetrack us from developing a personal relationship with Jesus.

Our society admires people who are busy. We always say hard work will pay off. The lives of the saints remind us that God is found in solitude and silence; our own pitcher must be filled with living water before we can pour a glass for others to drink. So maybe this week, let's try Mary's approach, set aside the cell phone, the laptop, the dishtowel, the TV special and make some room for Jesus. Quietly sit with Jesus for awhile, remember, Jesus said that Mary choose the better part.

Someone once said that being a Christian is like being a pumpkin. God lifts you up, takes you in, and washes all the dirt off of you. He opens you up, touches you deep inside and scoops out all the yucky stuff-- including the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, and selfishness. Then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside you to shine for all the world to see. A little time in reflection with Jesus will give you peace and contentment and possibly a new smile.
