St. Joseph Update

Anointing of the Sick

On November 3rd following the 4:30 Mass we will celebrate the Anointing of the Sick. Anyone who is sick or elderly may receive this sacrament. It is also frequently given before or after surgery. The prayers and the blessing with holy oils is a beautiful sacrament in our Catholic Church. Many graces and blessings are given to all those who receive this sacrament.

Hope Emergency Program

Again this year we'll collect clean clothing and household items for those in need in southern Ohio.

The Ursuline Sisters "Hope Emergency Program" assists over 400 families in southern Ohio. Items can be dropped off at the church after weekend Masses on Oct. 27th & 28th and Nov. 3rd & 4th. If you have a large amount of items please call Bill 672-8442 or Bobby 435-4858 to arrange pickup.

All Saints Day - November 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation.

The Mass Schedule for Region 7 will be:

Oct 31st Emmanuel - 5:15 pm
 Nov. 1st Emmanuel - 7:00 am
 Nov. 1st St. Joseph - Noon
 Nov. 1st Holy Trinity— 6:00 pm

All Souls Day

At our noon Mass on Nov. 2, All Souls Day, we will remember in a special way all those who have died from our parish this past year. A candle will be lit for each person and a family member or friend will place the candle on the Blessed Mother altar in remembrance of their loved one.

Knights of Columbus Christmas Cards

The Knights of Columbus Council 500 will be offering religious Christmas cards for sale at the back of church on Nov. 3rd. The cards are reasonably priced and a great way to keep Christ in Christmas.

World Mission Collection

Our parish collected $2324.00 to support the Missions.
 Thank you for your generosity.

Memorial Mass for Fr. Lou

The Glandorf choir has graciously agreed to sing at the Memorial Mass for Fr. Louis Osterhage this Sunday, October 28th at 2:00pm.

Fr. Lou's classmates; Fr. Tom Beischel, Fr. Jim McCabe and Fr. Vince Hoying will also be in attendance. Food and refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria following Mass.

All our welcome.

Congratulations to the Newly Weds

Pastor's Corner

(Continuing the story of the life of St. Gaspar del Buffalo)

After the defeat of Napoleon in January 1814, Gaspar returned to Rome to begin his mission. Although he first wanted to join the Jesuits, Gaspar was convinced by Pope Pius VII instead to begin a massive effort of evangelization in Rome and the Papal States. In response to the Holy Father's request, Gaspar drew upon the rich resources of two of his mentors, Frs. Albertini and Bonnani, to begin a society of apostolic life that today we know as the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. The congregation was founded at the Abbey of San Felice at Giano in the Umbrian Hills on August 15, 1815.

Gaspar's small congregation was devoted to preaching the Word of God, especially in parish missions held in isolated villages in the rural hills.

Gaspar was a powerful preacher who inspired all who heard him. At the same time, he worked tirelessly to establish his congregation, encouraging his members, raising funds whenever possible, and fighting back opposition from others in the Church.

The power of Gaspar's presence and preaching was found most dramatically in his work with the bandits (modern day terrorist) who infested the hills between Rome and Naples. Lawlessness prevailed and many towns were under the control of these bandits. The town of Sonnino, nestled in the mountains near Latina, served as the bandits' headquarters. Papal forces threatened to destroy the town as retribution of the crimes.

Cardinal Cristaldi, an advisor to Pope Pius VII and a great admirer of Gaspar, suggested that Gaspar and his new band of missionaries go into the towns and provinces where the bandits lived and establish mission houses. There they were to preach the Word of God, establish churches and chapels, and see to the continued instruction of the people.

Between 1821 and 1823 six new mission houses were opened. Armed with only the crucifix and the bible, the missionaries went into the hills to seek out the bandits and win them over. Gaspar's preaching so moved the people that he was known as a "spiritual whirlwind."

Gaspar spent his life strengthening and nurturing his congregation. He was often on the road, traveling from mission house to mission house, from village to village, always exhorting those around him to turn to the Precious Blood of Jesus for solace and guidance. After helping cholera victims in Rome in late 1837, Gaspar died in the city he loved on December 28, 1837. The medical report called him a "victim of charity." Gaspar was beatified in 1904 and canonized a saint on June 12, 1954. (Taken from: Kaleidoscope of Precious Blood Prayer, Published by the Precious Blood Leadership Conference, pg. 10-11)

Remembering Those Who Have Gone Before Us

We are starting a Book of Life to capture the names of all our loved ones who have died. The book is in the back of church on the podium. Please enter the names of your family members and friends you would like to remember in prayer. The book will be on display during the month of November on the Blessed Mother altar. Let us remember all those who have gone before us in this special way.

40 Days for Life - Sept 23 - Nov 4

Take some time to pray in front of the abortion clinic at 1401 Stroop Road during this time.

Married and Engaged Couples

Natural Family Planning is not the old "rhythm method," but uses all the woman's fertility signs in a safe, healthy, and highly effective method in accord with Catholic teaching. Classes begin Friday, November 9, at Incarnation Parish Center. Call 435-4750 for additional information or register at:

CANA II

The Cana II Teams in the Dayton and Northern areas of the archdiocese are searching for couples who are presently living in successful second marriages to participate in this ministry. This marriage preparation ministry is an excellent resource for couples preparing to enter into this unique marriage situation. It is powerful because the couples on these teams are honest about the marriage situation they are planning to enter and they are sincerely supportive to the couples who attend this program. Topics covered are:

Forgiveness (of self and past relationships); Family of Origin, Conflict resolution, Communication, Sacrament of Marriage, Intimacy & Sexuality, Remarriage Concerns: Step-Family issues, and Finances as they pertain to a second marriage. The time commitment to this ministry is 2-3 meetings in preparation for the scheduled Cana II and two Cana II Saturdays per year. If you would like to participate in this ministry please contact Noreen Wendeln @ 937-222-0227 or by email: nwendeln@catholiccincinnati.org.
