Bicentennial of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood -- 1815--2015

At a very young age, St. Gaspar del Bufalo, the founder of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, already knew his calling. While still a 17-year-old student at the Collegio Romano, Gaspar was already preaching and teaching in his parish, where some complained that the seminarian was overstepping his bounds.

"Seminarian del Bufalo does better than I" in preaching, the pastor serenely replied. How are we living out our calling as Catholic Christians?

Pastor's Corner

Today's gospel provides a very familiar scene from family life. A parent needs help. The elder child is all talk and no action. "Molly, clean your room." "Ok, I will Mom." Days later nothing has been cleaned. When asking a younger child for help the parent received a defiant response. "No, I won't do it—it's not my job." But, in a short amount of time the child reconsiders and gets the job done.

Every day God is asking us to go into the world to build the Kingdom of God. Think for a moment about this past week. How did you respond to God's invitation to be the face, the hands, the ears and the heart of Jesus? What did you do with the request of a friend, a neighbor or a stranger for help? Did you follow through on your promise to spend time with the family?

In giving us the gift of free will, God has given us the ability to say yes or to say no to his love. It's easy to say yes while we are in church because we are surrounded by believers. What is our response once we leave the church building and go out into the vineyard of our home, our place of work or play?

St. Paul reminds us to keep our focus on Christ and His vision for the world. Our call is to live in fellowship with one another, sharing compassion as we remain united in love. How will you respond to God's invitation to go and work in the vineyard of the Lord today? Fr Angelo

The Holy Trinity, St. Joseph and Emmanuel Pastoral Region is hosting an "I Believe in Marriage" speaker series for married and engaged couples! Come and enjoy food and fellowship while rediscovering what it means to build a life giving, Sacramental Marriage. There are two presentations remaining, Oct. 12th at Holy Trinity, and Nov. 8th at St. Joseph's, from 6:30 – 8:30pm.

Our second talk on Oct. 12th will be at Holy Trinity Church, 272 Bainbridge Street in downtown Dayton in Trinity Center, the former school building and will be presented by Courtney Brown, the Education Director at Ruah Woods in Cincinnati, Ohio. His talk is titled "Marriage and True Intimacy" and he will be talking about how our culture has a tendency to equate intimacy to how often you have sex but that there is more to intimacy than sex. This talk will look at St. John Paul II reflection on Human Love in the Divine Plan (Theology of the Body) and implications to our marriages and intimacy. Mark your calendars for these final two dates and watch for more information to come out on future Marriage Enrichment opportunities!

Respect Life Sunday October 4-5, 2014

Each October the bishops of the United States call us to observe Respect Life Month, a time to particularly reflect on life issues and to pray for and promote greater respect for all human life.

Pope Francis noted in his Day for Life greeting: "Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect." Imagine yourself pausing in quiet wonder in front of a beautiful piece of art. Now think of the artist who created that masterpiece with painstaking care and precision, stepping back to admire his work. Each of us is a masterpiece, created by God with purpose and tenderness. We are each loved so intensely and are each of such great worth that we cannot even comprehend it. How can I affirm, protect and promote a culture of life today?

From September 24-November 2, our Dayton community will take part in 40 days for Life...a groundbreaking, coordinated international mobilization. The vigil location for Dayton will be at the Women's Medical Center, 1401 East Stroop Road, Kettering, Ohio. We pray that, with God's help, this will mark the beginning of the end of abortion in our city and beyond. To sign up to stand vigil please visit www.40daysforlife.com
