"Family is Forever"

By: Crystal-Lynn Baringer

A family is made of love and tears—laughter and years.

It grows stronger with the passing of time—more precious with the making of memories.

It's the place you find someone to encourage you, believe in you, celebrate with you and to comfort you.

A family is where your heart feels most at home because you're always wanted—always welcomed—always needed—always loved!

Feast of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

In his book entitled: "Forgotten Among the Lilies," Fr. Ronald Rolheiser recalls a talk that he gave to a group of young adults who were preparing for marriage. He was trying to challenge them with the Christian teaching on love and sexuality. They were objecting constantly.

When he had finished speaking a young man stood up and said, "Father, I agree with your principles, in the ideal. But you are totally unrealistic. Do you know what is going on out here? Nobody is living that stuff anymore. You'd have to be one person in a thousand to live what you're suggesting. Everyone is living differently now!"

Rolheiser looked at him, sitting beside a young woman whom he obviously loved deeply and hoped to marry, and decided to appeal to his idealism. He asked him, "When you marry that lady beside you, what kind of marriage do you want, one like everyone else's, or one in a thousand?" "One in a thousand," he answered without hesitation. "Then, you'd best do what only one in a thousand does. If you do what everyone else does, you will have a marriage like everyone else. If you do what only one in a thousand does, you can have a one-in-a-thousand marriage."

On this Feast of the Holy Family I think Fr. Rolheiser has a helpful observation to offer us as we look at the life of a Catholic family. Through the Sacrament of Marriage the love of husband and wife is to mirror God's love for his people. As this love brings forth new life the quality of sacrificial love is meant to be shared with everyone in the household. Our family life is not meant to be like the general flow of family life in the culture. Rather, we are to follow the example of the Holy Family.

Unfortunately, the interpretation of the Holy Family we have presented to us this time of year on Christmas cards often shows a pious setting with halos and choirs of angels, an image sometimes hard to relate to as we look at our own families. What makes a family holy is the desire to live in right relationship with God and one another.

In St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians we hear some of the qualities that we want to foster in our journey to live as a holy family. Our lives are to be marked by "heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, forgiving one another as the Lord has forgiven you. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. Let peace control your hearts and be thankful, doing everything in the name of the Lord Jesus." (Col.3:12-17) Put these virtues into practice and your family life will surely be one in a thousand!

Exercising these virtues enables us to make our way through the challenges that come our way in family life. Even the Holy Family had its share of challenges, heartache and pain. Life was not perfect for them either. What was perfect was their trust in God the Father. In our families it is important to recognize the need for on-going conversion and unconditional trust in God. As long as we work to model our lives upon the love of Jesus, Mary and Joseph we can trust that God will shape our hearts into the holiness we desire and the unity we seek.

Fr. Angelo

Blood Drive in honor of Bicentennial Year

Will you share what is most precious? As part of the jubilee/celebration of their 200th anniversary in 2015, the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, who minister in the Dayton area, are organizing a blood drive and we hope parishioners of your parish will participate. Our founder, St. Gaspar del Bufalo, once said that he wished he had a thousand tongues to proclaim the Precious Blood of Jesus.

We want to gather a thousand units of blood during our jubilee year as a way to thank God for the blessings he has given us, and to share those blessings with others in need. Our next blood drive will take place on Tuesday, January 6th from 8AM – 5:45PM at the Community Blood Center at 349 S. Main Street, Dayton, Ohio. Their friendly and professional staff will take good care of you—and enable you to take care of others. Appointments are encouraged. 1-800-388-4483.
