PASTOR'S PEN

This past week Fr. Angelo, Fr. Ken and Br. Matt gathered with other Missionaries of the Precious Blood for their annual assembly in Carthage, Ohio. The meetings offer an opportunity to renew relationships among members of the CPPS congregation who are scattered in various parts of the Cincinnati Province in this country and in Latin America. In the midst of responding to the business agenda we also celebrated the final Incorporation of Matt Keller and James Smith as the newest members of our congregation and the Deacon Ordinations of James Smith and Peter Tam Hoang. You may remember Matt Keller who was with us for an internship period last summer. Please keep these men in your prayers as they continue their vocational journey. Our assembly also provided a nice period of reflection as we prepared for this weekend's Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ.

In today's readings we hear about a person named Melchizedek. He is a King and a priest of God the Most High who recognized in Abram, later to be named Abraham, a person blessed by God because of Abram's victory in battle. Melchizedek offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving in Abram's name. The offering is bread and wine. Abram also recognizes that it was not by his own strength that he was victorious over the four kings and so he gives a tenth of his possessions as an offering to the Lord. This is the source of the biblical concept of tithing.

Little is known of Melchizedek. No one knows where he came from or where he went after this encounter with Abram. He is the first person in the Bible to be given the name of "priest." Christianity has seen Melchizedek as a foreshadowing of Jesus Christ. Jesus is our eternal priest and King of Kings who is both the sacrifice and the offering. Just as Melchizedek offered a thanksgiving gift of bread and wine to God, so too, Jesus gives us His body and blood in the form of bread and wine as a thanksgiving offering. Through the Eucharist, a word that means thanksgiving, we are able to share in the life of Jesus today and His gift of eternal life.

The Gospel reading of the multiplication of loaves and fish is also a foreshadowing of the Eucharist we share. St. Mark says: "Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied." Only Jesus is able to provide food for such a large crowd. The abundance of bread given to us by Jesus will always be enough to satisfy the hunger of the world. Our sharing in the meal of the Lord is helping us to prepare to enter the eternal banquet feast of heaven.

In reflecting on the gift of the Eucharist, Fr. Wilfred Theisen, O.S.B. makes the following observation. "The Eucharist does not change what we are, but our view of ourselves, and the world in which we live. The Eucharist helps us to see that God's energy and life are in the world. The Eucharist helps us to make a beginning in the conquest of despair, anger, irritability, helps us to suppress unkind words and thoughts towards others, dishonesty and other destructive behavior. We struggle unsuccessfully by ourselves. When we turn to the Lord in the Eucharist instead of ourselves, we find the courage, resolution, and perseverance to work on those matters in our life that need to be changed. It is through the Eucharist that we can change what should be changed in our lives and learn to accept what cannot be changed and gain the wisdom to know the difference."

The Anima Christi (Prayer after Receiving Communion)

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ, wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me; That with your saints,
I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.*
