PASTOR'S PEN

All around us we see the signs of the changing seasons with the falling leaves, the shortened daylight hours and the dropping temperatures. The growth of summer is past and now creation enters into a period of rest. From the outside the trees and plants appear to have died and yet we know that deep within their roots the gift of new life awaits the coming of spring.

This time of year the church also enters the final weeks of the liturgical calendar. In two weeks we will end the church year with the Feast of Christ the King. In these final weeks of the church year the scripture readings draw our attention to end-times and the promise of eternal life.

In our First Reading from the Book of Maccabees we see that a mother and her seven sons held firm to their beliefs and were put to death for refusing to violate God's law. Just as they had the freedom to choose eternal life or death, we too prepare for death by the way we live each day. When confronted with temptations that will challenge you to abandon your faith, how will you respond?

The prospects of the final judgment need not frighten us, but rather, can encourage us to see each day as a new opportunity to prepare ourselves for eternal life. Over and over again, Jesus reminds us that living the gospel is more than following religious practices of the law. To live the gospel is to continually live the dying and rising of Jesus Christ in our day to day experiences, to embrace the call to die to self so that a new self can be born.

In our gospel reading the Sadducees were trying to mock Jesus with an elaborate story of seven brothers experiencing death after marrying the same woman. The Sadducees denied the resurrection and so they were trying to trap Jesus in his speech. Jesus challenges them to see that "God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

As the Sadducees found out, trying to make a comparison between life on earth and life in heaven is not always a helpful proposition. Life in heaven will not be bound by the practices and traditions of life on earth. Jesus corrects the Sadducees in their misinterpretation of marriage. When we are born into everlasting life, our lives will no longer need to model life with Christ because we will be fully living with Christ.

Marriage as a sacrament modeling Christ's love for the Church will not be needed because once we are born into everlasting life we will not need to have models, or representations or symbols of what life will be in heaven because we will live in the fullness of this life. At the same time we can also say that the relationships that were forged here on earth are not lost in death but are perfected in heaven. There is mystery in what will be but we can trust that the beauty of resurrection life will be more than anything we could ever imagine.

PASTORAL REGION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer Before an Election

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen. (Prayer from USCCB)

National Vocation Awareness Week. Let us celebrate all who have given their lives in service to the Church by renewing our own baptismal commitment to serve the Lord. Please consider your call to serve God in your particular vocation. Hopefully some of you will hear a call to priesthood, diaconate or religious life and will be open to that possibility. If you would like assistance, please contact Fr. Angelo, Fr. Ken or Br. Matt at the parish office. We will have a special observance of National Vocation Awareness Week Sunday evening, November 6th from 6pm – 8pm in the school building of Emmanuel parish. This evening will feature a panel discussion, Q & A and a social with refreshments.

Marriage Uncorked! Dare to Date! The Region 7 Marriage Ministry invites married and engaged couples to join us on Saturday, November 12th from 7:00-9:00pm in Emmanuel's Church Basement, for a DVD by Scott Hahn entitled "The Meaning and Mystery of Marriage," which St. Joseph Communications describes as "a must for every Catholic couple." One of the greatest communicators of the Catholic faith gives us insight into: How Saint Joseph plays a role in the lives of spouses; How to call on the graces from the Sacrament of Matrimony; How to listen to your spouse's every need; How the marriage covenant can be compared to Jesus and His Bride (the Catholic Church); The spiritual tools that help spouses remain chaste to their husbands and wives and much more. You won't want to miss it!! Bring an appetizer or sweet to share. We will provide the wine and festivities! Babysitting is available for $2 per child. Please register for the Babysitting service by Wednesday, Nov 9th by contacting Anna Earl at annadearl@yahoo.com.

This week we will support our parishioners and families who serve this nation with distinction as members of the U.S. military. The Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA will provide the Gospel, the sacraments and other forms of spiritual support to the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces wherever they serve and to veterans who are in VA medical centers. Please prayerfully consider a generous contribution to this special triennial collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2012 and last taken in 2013.
