PASTOR'S PEN

In the children's book Alice in Wonderland, Alice asks the cat for directions. "Would you tell me, please, which way I ought to go from here?" "That depends a good deal on where you want to get to," said the cat. "I don't much care where," said Alice. "Then it doesn't matter which way you go," said the cat. In a sense the cat is telling Alice, if you don't know where you are going any road will take you there.

This is an important message for us as we live in a world that resists acceptance of truth; that there are foundational principals to life which have been given to us by God to help us on our journey to heaven. One such example would be the 10 Commandments which are the context for our First Reading today. God revealed himself to this group of slaves he freed from Egypt and gave them a new identity as God's chosen people. He was leading them through the desert to the promise land. The people agreed to do all that the Lord had told them. To ritualize this covenant Moses takes half the blood from the animal sacrifice and splashed it on the altar, the other half was sprinkled on the people.

Why would he use blood to seal the covenant? Just for a moment, let's put ourselves in the mind of the Israelite people. For them Blood was seen as containing the very essence of life. When blood stayed within the body the creature lived. When blood was shed and flowed outside the body the creature died. So, in their thinking, blood contained the very essence of life and therefore was a powerful means of communication between two unequal worlds, heaven and earth. By using blood they fashioned a bridge uniting themselves with God, the giver of life.

Throughout history, when the people of God wandered off course in their journey of life God would send the prophets to point the way. In the fullness of time God sent his Son, Jesus to teach us how to live. Breaking the cycle of violence, Jesus offered himself as the altar and the lamb of sacrifice, the victim and the victor. He gave us his Body and Blood as the new and eternal covenant. His victory over sin and death opened the door to eternal life for all who believe.

In our journey of life, it is important that we remember where we are going because there are many temptations and distractions that are working to steer us away from our heavenly homeland. The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ was instituted in the year 1264 by Pope Urban IV to strengthen our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. We believe that through the words of consecration and the power of the Holy Spirit, the bread and wine offered at Mass become the true body and blood of Jesus Christ.

In your journey of life if you don't know where you are going then a happy meal of a hamburger and fries is good enough for you. But if you desire everlasting life and a heart that gives unconditional love then it is essential that you come to the table of the Lord to be nourished with the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. This awesome gift we receive is food from heaven nourishing us today.

By receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus we are to become what we receive! Just as Christ poured out his life blood in loving service we must do the same. The Precious Blood of Jesus reminds us that God has made ALL life precious. When we allow our hearts to be steeped in the Precious Blood of Jesus we can begin to see God's presence in each person we meet. Indeed, we know where we are going and so we must remain connected to Jesus who is the way, the truth and the life.

REGION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas after Communion

I thank You, Lord, Almighty Father, Everlasting God, for having been pleased, through no merit of mine, but of Your great mercy alone, to feed me, a sinner, and Your unworthy servant, with the precious Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that this Holy Communion may not be for my judgment and condemnation, but for my pardon and salvation. Let this Holy Communion be to me an armor of faith and a shield of good will, a cleansing of all vices, and a rooting out of all evil desires. May it increase love and patience, humility and obedience, and all virtues. May it be a firm defense against the evil designs of all my visible and invisible enemies, a perfect quieting of all the desires of soul and body. May this Holy Communion bring about a perfect union with You, the one true God, and at last enable me to reach eternal bliss when You will call me. I pray that You bring me, a sinner, to the indescribable Feast where You, with Your Son and the Holy Spirit, are to Your saints true light, full blessedness, everlasting joy, and perfect happiness.
Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Deacon Matthew Keller will be ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, June 9th at his home parish in Maria Stein, Ohio. The prayer of consecration the bishop offers at the time of ordination alludes to Aaron and the seventy elders called by Moses as Old Testament figures that prefigure the presbyters (priests) who will work as coworkers of the bishop. The prayer is directed to the Father, who by the power of the Holy Spirit provides for the various forms of ministry within the Church of Christ. After speaking of the various forms of ministry exercised within the Church, it states that the priests are those who assist the apostles in making Christ present in the Church today. It asks for the spirit of holiness for the new priests so that they may help to sanctify God's people. It also asks that they may be configured to Christ the priest and spotless victim. Please join us in praying for Deacon Matt as he prepares to become a Priest of the Church.
