PASTOR'S PEN

Growing up, my siblings and I liked to pretend that we were explorers looking for clues to those who settled in that area years ago. One frequent site we visited was an old dump back in the woods. We would spend hours digging around in the mud and junk looking for treasures.

One day we found several blue and white pieces of ceramic that formed a pattern unfamiliar to us. We dug around and found more and more piece which soon took the form of a plate. We thought we found a treasure and took the pieces home, cleaned them up and glued them together as best we could. Mom said the plate was a Blue Willow pattern. Some of the pieces fit together nicely, others were chipped and weathered, and some pieces were never to be found. Even in its brokenness it was beautiful to us.

When I think about our lives we are a lot like that broken plate. None of us are perfect. We all experience suffering, sin, disappointments and loss. St. Paul speaks of having a thorn in the flesh that he asked the Lord to remove three times. Jesus said to him, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." The apostle Paul makes it clear that God does not leave us when we sin or when we are weak. The Precious Blood of Jesus has been given to us as a source of life and strength in our weakness. In the mystery of God's plan, maybe this thorn in the side we experience remains a part of our life to keep us humble, to remind us of our total dependence upon God.

We are called to embrace the thorn, the brokenness, the hole in the soul, and place it in the open heart of Jesus. Our weakness and brokenness in life reminds us that all power comes from God. He looks upon us as His treasure, not a perfect treasure, but one that is seeking a deeper relationship of love. What is the hole in your soul, that place of pain and brokenness? Rather than trying to ignore it or cover it up, turn it over to the Lord and let the Precious Blood of Jesus fill what is lacking. Allow the Blood of Christ to remind you of how precious you are in God's sight.

We gather at the Eucharist not because we have everything together, but because we need a Savior. Some parts of our life are clean and bright, others are fractured and broken, still other parts will never be found or understood. We bring our lives as they are and place them in the chalice as our offering to God and through the Blood of Christ we hear Jesus say, "You are my beloved. My grace is sufficient for you. Come, rest in me"

Soul of Christ

Jesus, may all that is you flow into me.

May your body and blood be my food and drink.

May your passion and death be my strength and life.

Jesus, with you by my side enough has been given.

May the shelter I seek be the shadow of your cross.

Let me not run from the love which you offer,

But hold me safe from the forces of evil.

On each of my dyings shed your light and your love.

Keep calling to me until that day comes,

When, with your saints, I may praise your forever.

Amen.

*(Prayer By: St. Ignatius of Loyola, Translation by:
Fr. David L. Fleming, S.J., The Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius, p.3)*

REGION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Parishioners of the Dayton Region 7,

As I reflect on my journey to the priesthood, I know God's hands have taken on many different forms and have worked through various different people. As I have spent the past year here during my deacon internship, I have felt God's hands at work and I am grateful for your love, care and support. I am also grateful for all those hands that were at work in helping to put together the receptions after the Masses last weekend and for the hospitality of helping my family to feel welcome. The food and company after each of the three Masses was amazing. I look forward to ministering to you in the years ahead.
Peace, Fr. Matt

Retirement Celebration for Fr. Ken Pleiman, C.P.P.S.

Fr. Ken will begin his retirement on July 2, 2018. To honor his seven years of service to our Pastoral Region and his many years of service to the Church we will host a retirement celebration for him on Sunday, July 15th from 1:00 PM until 3:00 PM at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Bainbridge Street. Snacks and refreshments will be served. Please plan on joining us as we honor this faithful shepherd of the Lord.

Formed Pick of the Week— "The Suitcase, A Story About Giving."

A Beautiful Tale for the Whole Family. Christ said: "unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3). In this animated storybook narration, young Thomas' pure heart helps him to see the path to heaven and inspires his family to join him on the journey.

Dayton Council 500 Knights of Columbus Steak Fry

Please join us on July 13th from 6-8 PM for an 8 oz. New York steak dinner for $10 plus a donation of a can or food item for the STVDP Emmanuel food pantry. Desert/pastry donations are greatly appreciated. Please RSVP to Larry at 937-470-3594.

July Marriage Uncorked!

Remember the movie "Ghost?" Have you ever wondered how you and your spouse would do at creating a work of art together? Even if it never crossed your mind to be creative with your spouse, you might enjoy risking something new as we move our July Marriage Uncorked to the ceramics studio of Erin and Ben Lambers located at Cornell Studio Supply 8290 N Dixie Dr, Dayton. On Saturday, July 14, from 6-9:30 pm, there will be a few clay ice breaking events as we grow closer with our teamwork to create a piece of pottery with your spouse. Either way you will have a piece that is functional (we hope) and permanent to remind you of the love you have for each other. No babysitting available and a fee of $10 per couple. Space is limited to ten couples, email Anna Earl anna.earl7@gmail.com. Bring an appetizer or sweet to share.

The Catholic Navigator, on its journey through the liturgical year, has just docked in the church vestibule – Welcome Aboard! Please pick up an issue of this timely companion to each Sunday's liturgy, imprimatur granted. Explore with us the Catechism, spiritual traditions, Scriptural insights, and so much more from what has been handed down over the past two thousand years. During the month of July, we will be highlighting articles on the spirituality of the Precious Blood by Fr. Angelo.

For the remainder of this liturgical year, free downloads of our three publications – The Catholic Navigator, The Catholic Clipper, and The Catholic Tugboat -- are available each Monday at www.TheCatholicNavigator.org (See The Galley: Food For Thought page).

DEACON BALDWIN REQUESTS PRAYERS

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

Recently I was diagnosed with a serious disease. The doctors are currently running a battery of tests to find out exactly what it is, how much it has progressed, and how to treat it, but at this point it seems to involve at least one organ and my spine.

I would like to request your prayers for myself and especially my family. Knowing that "all things work for good for those who love God" and that God is good, I ask you to pray that God's will be done and that through it all my family and I may experience that "peace of God that surpasses all understanding."

Yours in Christ,
Deacon Baldwin

Join us to study True Reformers: Saints of the Catholic Reformation. Participants will learn about the true benefactors of the human race: the saints. The saints of the Catholic Reformation show us just how powerful—and beautiful—is the human heart's free response to God's generous grace. The first of the six-session study at Emmanuel's Education Center begins in September. See flyers in back of church to register.
