PASTOR'S PEN

For the people affected by the recent acts of hatred and violence reported in the news, the sun has been darkened and the stars have fallen from the sky. They have experienced the days of tribulation that Jesus was talking about in today's gospel. We tend to think of the Second Coming of Jesus as a mysterious future event and so why be concerned about it today? But the end times are not only reserved for the Last Judgement. Trials and tribulation will happen in the present challenging us to live our faith boldly.

Some will experience end times with the death of a loved one, when our life spirals downward into darkness and we know that life will never be the same. Others will experience end times when illness takes away their good health and their world of mobility and freedom collapses around us. We experience end times when a career is suddenly and unexpectedly terminated and all the dreams that we wished upon a star—fall from the sky and we sit in darkness.

These are times when the world we have fashioned comes to an end and we feel helpless and lost. But Jesus assures us, "when you see these things happening, know that I am near." Jesus stands victorious over sin and death; He walks with us into the darkness and leads us to new life.

God's judgement need not be something that we are afraid of. That's why Jesus says it is not important to know when the world will end. What is important is how we are living right now. What are we doing with our lives? Jesus wants us to know that we are made for heaven!

With the resurrection, Jesus helps us to see that in the end, we are not left in darkness, violence, fear and chaos. Rather, he speaks of the tender sprouts on a fig tree and the new season of growth which will come. There is new life that comes after winter and so we live in hope. In times of darkness we can see new sprouts of life through a card or a message of support we receive from a friend and the virtue of hope leads us back into the light.

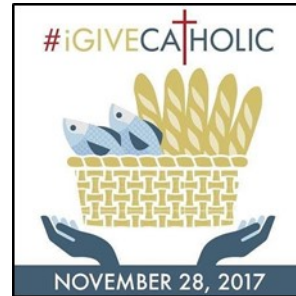

What we thought was the end of the road is merely a bend in the road, because the road we are on is the "Path of Life" a path that Jesus has already walked before us; a path he uses to lead us to life, to the fullness of joy. Living faithfully our baptismal calling here on earth we are living into our final destiny, eternal life. Through baptism we recognize that we are more than dust—that we are made of star-dust and the creation God has made will one day be transformed to shine with him forever.

In All Things Give Thanks. (A Thanksgiving Message from Formed.com) Each year, our country sets aside one day to focus on gratitude. For Christians, though, every day should be Thanksgiving! Not because we need a daily turkey and stuffing feast, but because gratitude is central to the Christian life.

Thomas Merton once said that "to be grateful is to recognize the Love of God in everything." With eyes of gratitude, we can see how Jesus gives us a dozen opportunities a day to love Him, even in the daily trials of life. So next time you look at your bills and begin to worry, pause, and pray "Father, thank you for this opportunity to entrust my finances to you." When your family members are fighting, pause, and pray "Jesus, thank you for the opportunity to show Your love to my family members." When tempers are short and you yell at a loved one, pause, and pray "Holy Spirit, thank you for teaching me humility and giving me the grace to go apologize." Every day, God wants to teach us gratitude. May this Thanksgiving season help us cultivate thankfulness in our lives.

REGION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Four Courageous Conversations: Responding to the Clergy Sex Abuse Crisis... Join us November 29th at 7-9pm at Holy Trinity's Trinity Center for a listening session where you can voice your thoughts and feelings about the clergy sex abuse crisis. Sean Reynolds from Mustard Seed Consultants will help facilitate the evening. If you are interested in helping as a table facilitator contact Shaughn Phillips at 937-228-1223 or sphilips@daytondowntowncatholic.com.

#iGiveCatholic is an on-line giving event with the goal of inspiring the Catholic community to come together as faithful stewards and to "Give Catholic" on #GivingTuesday, a global day dedicated to giving back for the blessing we have received. Our pastoral region is participating in this year's event. Further information will follow.

Young Adult Movie Watch... St. Ignatius tells us to see God in all things. Why not through movies? Come join other young adults November 20th at 7pm to watch the movie Contact; a sci-fi mystery about Dr. Arroway discovering proof of extraterrestrial intelligence who send plans for a mysterious machine. A short reflection will follow. For details and to register, Email Shaughn Phillips at sphilips@daytondowntowncatholic.com.

Young Adult Advent Series

Join other young adults (20s and 30s) to pray with scripture and the downtown parishes' Nativity stained glass windows this Advent. It will take place Saturdays from 2-3pm: 12/1 at St. Joseph, 12/8 at Holy Trinity, and 12/15 at Emmanuel. Young parents are encouraged to bring their children as well. Optional pint and fellowship afterwards!

K of C Christmas Card Representatives from Council 500 Knights of Columbus will be in the back of church at St. Joseph and Holy Trinity today with order forms for their annual "Keep Christ in Christmas" card sale and fundraiser. Stop by and pick up an order form. You may also donate a box or two to our V.A. Christmas visit or the Sisters of the Precious Blood on Salem Ave. This is a wonderful way to spread the true meaning of Christmas worldwide.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

November 18 is the World Day of the Poor and the same weekend as the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), the national, anti-poverty campaign of the U.S. bishops. CCHD has been an immeasurable blessing for thousands in our Archdiocese. Just this past year, the agencies funded by CCHD have empowered more than 2,500 low-income people to break the cycle of poverty through such feats as finding jobs, responsibly reentering society after prison, educating youth, and securing decent housing and public services for their communities. Archbishop Schnurr appeals to the faithful this year: "Through the grants we make to well-vetted organizations, CCHD uniquely empowers those in poverty to identify their own needs and to become their own agents of positive change." Please prayerfully consider how you will give on Collection Weekend, Nov. 17-18. Your dollars are making real change! Visit www.usccb.org/cchd to learn more, or the local CCHD website, www.catholiccincinnati.org/socialaction.

*In All Things,
Give Thanks*

50/50 Raffle to benefit the Marriage Ministry

The Marriage Ministry of Region 7 will be hosting a 50/50 raffle to benefit marriage strengthening activities at coffee and donuts following the 10:30 Mass at Emmanuel on November 18th. Come to contribute and play!

Emmanuel Christmas cards go on sale beginning Nov. 17th. Proceeds support the many Pro-Life projects. The cards contain an inspiring message from Venerable Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Once again the Emmanuel Respect Life Committee is offering to help fund people heading to the March for Life in January. The first ten people to respond will receive up to $100.00 for expenses. Please email Mark Miller at marknancymiller@att.net to sign up, or for more information. Let us all pray to end abortion!

We continue to seek information for our Emmanuel Veterans Honor Roll for our military veterans. If you know of an Emmanuel veteran, please use the data form available at the back of church to submit his or her information. We want to honor all our veterans for their service to our country.

Join us for the James: Pearls for Wise Living Bible Study at Emmanuel beginning in January. The letter of James offers wisdom for ordinary Christians in everyday life. See flyers in the back of church to register for this Ascension Press study by Jeff Cavins and Sarah Christmyer.

Join us for Coffee and Donuts today (Sunday) in the school building.

THANKS

One act of thanksgiving when things go wrong with us is worth one thousand thank-yous when things are agreeable to our inclination.

Welcome to Our Newly Baptized – Henry Sylvester Eckhart, baptized last Sunday at Holy Trinity. Congratulations to the proud parents Sam and Liz.

Would you like to update your knowledge of Catholicism and at the same time walk the journey with one of our inquirers in the RCIA program? Sponsors are needed. If history repeats itself and generally it does, sponsors say they get a lot more out of the process than they originally thought they would. Would you like to investigate this process? Please call Lynda at the parish office – 228-1223.

iGiveCatholic advanced donations have begun. Please go to the Holy Trinity website, HolyTrinityDayton.org, and click on the iGiveCatholic link found on the left side. There you will find how to donate early.

Holy Trinity Parish is seeking a part time Director of Music. Director must have a degree of proficiency in the use of the pipe organ and the ability to cantor. Salary is commensurate with education and experience. If interested, qualified candidates should send cover letter and resume to Holy Trinity Parish, Attn: Judith L. Trick.

Our Non-perishable Food Collection For Thanksgiving

All items can be brought to Mass and placed in the boxes in back of the last pews. The donated items will be given to the Emmanuel Food Pantry to restock their shelves. If you would rather give a monetary donation, place it in an envelope marked "Non-Perishable Food Donation" and place in the collection basket.

Our Apologies – Due to a spreadsheet miscalculation, the total proceeds for the Holiday Bazaar published last week in the bulletin was an error. The final total is $13,342.78. Thanks to all area businesses, parishioners and friends of the parish who helped raise these funds for our Outreach Ministries. God bless each and every one of you.

Thanks to all who are participating in our recycling program here at Holy Trinity. The green and yellow dumpster at the north end of Bainbridge Street is there for you to drop off catalogs, magazines, newspapers, junk mail, office paper, fax paper, notebooks, folders and cardboard.

Please continue to bring your aluminum beverage cans to Mass with you or drop them by the parish garage when you come through town. Thank you!
