FR. MATT'S REFLECTION

Are we who we say we are? Or do the actions of our lives reflect something different than who we say we really are?

I do and I do not like these questions. What I do not like about these questions is the wording. I mean there is just something weird about the wording of these questions that makes me feel a little uncomfortable. Yet, as weird as these questions sound there is some wisdom in them. They invite us to look at ourselves in the mirror and ask, "How am I doing at living the vision of who I say that I am?" How am I doing at living the vision of who God wants me to be? How am I doing at keeping the Lord's word?

The 'experts' like to tell us that we are to love the person that we see in the mirror, and we are not supposed to be critical of the person that we see. Or they may try telling us that the person that we see in the mirror is a mess and needs to change. Still another may say the only person that has control over the person that you see in the mirror is you. But you know, from my experience of looking at myself in the mirror, I typically see a person of beauty. I see a person that is living into the vision of who I and God wants me to be. At the same time, I also see a person that is not living into the person I want to be, that person who God wants me to be. I see a mess and that tells me that I have work to do if I want to be living better into this vision.

In our scriptures today we hear of the early Christians doing what they think is best to remain faithful to keeping the Lord's Word. In doing this they were living into the early vision of what it means to be Christian. And the disciples were successful at doing this. I mean as the apostles preach this message we hear "three thousand persons were added" (Acts 2:41) on one day and other places we read about how more people were added to the church. As the church grows, the question becomes, "How are we to be faithful to the Word of God?" "How do we live into this vision of being Christian? Some leaders said they needed to follow the Mosaic practice and others said they did not. They were not sure so they prayed and sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit and God gave a new direction on how they were to be faithful to the word of God. This new direction led them "to abstain from meat sacrificed to idols, from meats of strangled animals, and from unlawful marriage" (Acts 15:29)

Fast forward to 2019, we are still followers of the Lord and Christians. We are still striving to be faithful to the Word of God. Like our ancestors we live the faith that has been handed on to us. Like the early church it is not always clear for us how we are to live that vision. It is through prayer and the Holy Spirit that our faith evolves and as it evolves the Lord leads us. Sometimes leading us to somewhere different than our ancestors. Are we open to where the Holy Spirit is leading us? Are we open to living in that vision the Lord has for us?

Health Ministry Pilgrimage...Tamil Nadu, Mangalakudi

St. Gaspar Parish was recently built in the Diocese of Sivagangai and staffed by C.P.P.S Missionaries. The Church is built close to the site of the martyrdom of St. John the Britto, SJ. This is a pilgrimage site dedicated to the patron Saint of the Diocese. St. John de Britto entered the region as a Jesuit missionary from Europe and became the bedrock of faith for thousands of people. He was beheaded at Oriyur on Feb 4, 1693 by a regional king for preaching about Jesus Christ and establishing churches.

Reflection - Our devoted, wholehearted service given to Christ in the poor is a living proof to the church that we are a living part of the body of Christ and that Christ is pleased with us and shares His love for His Father with us." p 273

Miles Totals - Exercise miles -157, and Spiritual miles were 1,040 for a total of 1,197. We are only 2,827 miles from our goal, to date we have gone 15,653 miles. An error was made in last week's bulletin in relation to the last week to submit miles, June 2nd is the last date to submit your miles. So anyone who has been saving miles to get up over the edge to our goal of 18,480 miles you can submit them for another week.

Update On Deacon Baldwin: I would like to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your prayers for my health and for Heather and the family. July of last year I was diagnosed with Stage IV lung cancer that included tumors on my spine and in my brain. Thanks to God's mercy and your prayers the treatment I am receiving has stopped the progress of the cancer. The particular genetic form of cancer was one that recently had a targeted drug developed specifically for it and I am responding to the drug quite well, thanks be to God! Only 4% of those with the kind of cancer I have can take the drug and respond to it. The drug is not a cure, but has given me a new lease on life that I consider a miraculous gift from God! Whether a cure will come in the future I leave in His loving hands. I am at peace with whatever Our Lord has in store for me. In any case, thank you for your continued prayers and know that Heather and I are so very grateful for the love and concern you have shown us during this time. Yours in Christ, Deacon Baldwin

Have you noticed someone hasn't been in church lately? Or maybe you noticed someone who is by themselves each week at Mass and doesn't really seem to know anyone. I would like to encourage you to reach out to these and others you share the liturgy with each week. You might call someone you haven't seen for awhile and see how they're doing (we have a few extra parish directories if you didn't get one), maybe they've been ill and having someone reach out to them would brighten their day. You might stop before or after Mass and introduce yourself to someone. Invite someone to coffee and donuts and spend a little time getting to know them. These little things can make a world of difference as we strive to build a better parish, better community and better world.
