PASTOR'S PEN

Feast of the Precious Blood—This weekend the parishes in Region 7 will be celebrating the Feast of the Precious Blood of Christ with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. July 1st is the traditional Feast Day for the Precious Blood Congregation and we are given permission to celebrate this Solemnity in the various ministerial sites where our members are assigned. The scripture readings and prayers for Mass will come from those assigned to the Feast of the Precious Blood.

The Precious Blood of Jesus expresses the covenant of love that is shared between God and God's people, a covenant that is unconditional and eternal. In the Bible, covenants express what it means to be in relationship with God and one another; it is our way of standing together. In the offering of Christ's blood we do not see a renewal of the covenants of old; what we see is the gift of a new covenant.

The bold statement that Jesus makes at the last supper—to drink his blood—helps us to realize that we are no longer talking about an ordinary people or an ordinary age. The drinking of blood was something forbidden by Jewish law because blood was sacred to God. But what Jesus is saying is that the blood that belongs to God now belongs to the community of those who believe in Jesus and follow him. The life-force of God is now with the disciples of Jesus in a special way through his Precious Blood which binds us together as one.

What we learn from the life of Jesus is that a heart filled with the Precious Blood of Jesus respects the dignity and worth of each and every person as a beautiful gift. God is saying to us through Jesus that we are all one heart, we are all one blood. From the wood of the cross we can hear the heart of God saying: "those who are far off have been brought near through the blood of Christ" (Eph. 2:13). Giving expression to this witness of love and unity is a life-long journey for each of us.

As Catholics our belief in the Eucharist is an important perspective that can speak to the national conversation about racism today. In their Pastoral Letter on Racism entitled "Open Wide Our Hearts" the U.S. Bishops call us to a greater awareness of the sin of racism.

"Racism arises when—either consciously or unconsciously—a person holds that his or her own race or ethnicity is superior, and therefore judges persons of other races or ethnicities as inferior and unworthy of equal regard. When this conviction or attitude leads individuals or groups to exclude, ridicule, mistreat, or unjustly discriminate against persons on the basis of their race or ethnicity, it is sinful. Racist acts are sinful because they violate justice. They reveal a failure to acknowledge the human dignity of the persons offended, to recognize them as the neighbors Christ calls us to love (Mt 22:39). Racism occurs because a person ignores the fundamental truth that, because all humans share a common origin, they are all brothers and sisters, all equally made in the image of God." (USCCB, Open Wide Our Hearts)

Blood is essential for life it is something that all of us share in common. The Precious Blood of Jesus reminds us that all humanity has been redeemed in the Blood of Christ. The sin of racism destroys the proper relationship which God intends for our world. As members of the Body of Christ we must work to heal the wounds of sin and division one relationship at a time.

At each Mass, the Eucharistic cup, the chalice gathers together each of our lives, the suffering that cannot be avoided as well as the blessings of joy and hope that is found in Christ who is victorious over sin and death. Christ offers Himself to us as food and drink for

The journey, transforming us so that we can be "living chalices" for others, ready to pour out our lives as the living sacrament of Christ's blood binding us together as one.

As we gather to receive the healing and life-giving grace that comes from the sacrament of the Eucharist may we be open to God's healing love whether that comes to us in mind, body or spirit, and like Jesus, may we be ready to reach out in love to someone we encounter today and participate in the mission of Jesus, to fulfill the Father's dream that all may be one.

Prayer for an End to Racism

Mary, friend and mother to all,
through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being,
called to be one people,
sisters and brothers to each other.
We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.
We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.
We ask for your help in following your Son,
so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.
Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts: pray for us.
(USCCB, Open Wide Our Hearts, Pastoral Letter on Racism)

We are very appreciative of all who are practicing social distancing and wearing masks at church. We are doing this out of respect and concern for each other.

Please keep in your prayers all the elderly, sick and confined at home or in long term care facilities. Knowing they have the prayers and thoughts of fellow parishioners is comfort to them.

Tender Topics 2: Teaching Kids About Kindness

Kindness is a superpower that kids (and adults) can choose to use everyday to make themselves and others feel good and to improve the world. Being kind goes beyond simply being nice to our friends and families. Kindness is for our neighbors, public servants and those who help us everyday to have safer and better lives. Kindness is at the heart of the Gospel and what it means to have a caring heart.

Some ideas for kids showing kindness:

1. Surprise someone with a kind note or thank you or a hand made card.
2. Demonstrate the power of encouragement by having kids write encouraging words on sticky notes. When your child is not looking, add their names to the notes and leave them around the house for them to discover.
3. Pick up litter together- in your neighborhood, in the park, or in the school yard. Talk about how all of us have the power to make the world more beautiful.
4. Add gratitude to your evening routine and prayers. Try asking your child what made them happy that day.
5. Play "I Spy Kindness." Kindness is all around if we look for it. People helping others. Unexpected smiles. A gentle "hello" all inspire kindness in us and in others.

Kids pay more attention to what we do than what we say. Do something kind with your child if you want them to be kind.

Nominations for Parish Pastoral Council

Due to the pandemic and the closing of the church, we were unable to follow the normal schedule for the elections to the Parish Pastoral Council. So, elections will take place on Sunday, August 2. We are presently securing names of parishioners who would like to learn more about and place their names in nomination for possible election to the Parish Pastoral Council. To learn about the functions of each commission please go to Holytrinitydayton.org, choose Parish Pastoral Council, and scroll through the different commission to find out what you would be interested in. All are welcome to place their name in nominations. Simply call Judi at the parish office (937-228-1223) or email busmgr.holytrinity@gmail.com. Our objective is to have two candidates for each commission for the election. We will be accepting self nominations through the month of July. The Council meets 10 months out of the year and each Commission has their own schedule of meetings.
