FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

Pause for a moment. Do you hear it? The gift of peace and quiet. Sometime ago, someone sent me an article from the Wall Street Journal entitled, The Sounds of Silence. The author observed that it is amazing how cluttered life can become. There is so much to distract us and keep us from paying attention to what's really going on in our lives.

The article goes on to lament the loss of our interior life, spending time in silence. There is so much noise in our lives coming from the television, iPhone, earbuds, video games, Alexa voice service and Zoom sessions, continuous background noise in cars, elevators, stores, and restaurants.

It is important to take a step back every once in a while to discern what is idle chatter and what is the voice of God trying to speak to us in our hearts. People in every generation need a voice they can trust that cornerstone which inspires them and helps them to set the pattern of their lives. Jesus offers himself to us as that trustworthy voice.

When you stop and think about it, so many other voices in our lives only serve to distract and scatter us. They don't have our best interest at heart. The message of Easter is clear, God desires for us to be with him for all eternity! To help us in this journey, Jesus gives us the Holy Spirit to guide us to become more patient and less controlling, to become less judgmental and more merciful and to be reconciled with others through the gift of forgiveness.

Jesus the Good Shepherd knows each of us as his very own and speaks to us the truth that we are children of God. In this Easter season we receive the invitation to follow the example of Jesus the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for us. Jesus wants us to realize that each of us have been given a flock to care for, a flock to lead and nurture and protect. That flock can be our family, our set of friends, the people we encounter at work or those we meet in the community.

Each of us has the responsibility and the privilege of looking after and caring for someone else. In accepting this responsibility, we can either be good shepherds or bad shepherds. We can either know and love those entrusted to us or we can run from responsibility and show no concern for those under our care.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we are encouraged to reflect upon the call we have received from the Lord. At the time of our baptism, we became children of God and received the vocational call to holiness, to live as Jesus lived by following his example and walking in His ways. Some live out their call to holiness in the vocation of marriage, others through the single life, and some will respond to the call to holiness through a vocation as a priest, sister, brother or deacon or consecrated virgin.

I don't believe God has stopped calling people to ministry within the church; it's just that we're so easily distracted by the many voices crying out for our attention. Parents and grandparents, it is important that you encourage your children to think of religious life as a possible vocational choice so that the church will have faithful leaders for the future.

Following Jesus the Good Shepherd may mean that we find ourselves in the dark valley and yet, Jesus is there to protect us with rod and staff. Other times we are led along the path to peace, being nourished with his Body and Blood, guided by His living Word, and supported by this community of faith.

As Jesus poured out his lifeblood on the cross he sealed God's covenant of love and this covenant promises a future full of hope. Take some time today to listen to the silence, hear the voice of Jesus reassure you that in Him, you will find the Truth that leads to lasting peace.

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lenten Pilgrimage: Logan County, 1852, St. Patrick Church, 316 E. Patterson Ave, Bellefontaine www.catholicbellefontaine.org. The Bellefontaine area is where many Irish immigrants had settled, owing to the construction of the railroads. The first Mass in 1851 was in a parishioner's home and celebrated by Rev. Maurice Howard, who was pastor of St. Raphael's in Springfield. After visiting Bellefontaine in 1852 Archbishop Purcell advised that a church be built for his fellow Irish men and women. In 1853 construction began and Fr. Thomas Sheehan said the first Mass and dedication of the church on Christmas Day of 1853. Fr. John Coveney, of Ireland, in 1862 established the first school by using the skills he gained as a Jesuit and began teaching in the rectory. In 1869 John Powers, a mentally unstable man, shot and killed Fr. Coveney and was found not guilty by reason of insanity and committed to the Southern Ohio Lunatic Asylum in Dayton. Fr. Coveney was buried in Calvary Cemetery in Bellefontaine, when the cemetery was moved in 1889 an incident occurred as they were moving his body when the casket sprung open revealing that his body had not decayed at all. This prompted parishioners to believe he was a saint and would forever guide St. Patrick's.

Reflection—Am I eager to experience the goodness that Christ has in store for me?

On Mother's Day, you can help by writing a welcoming message on a plank used in the construction of the house and making a donation.

The Building Commission is hosting an outdoor work party on May 8th, from 9:00 a.m. till Noon. Plans are to do general grounds keeping and a few other maintenance activities. All are welcome to come and help. Many hands will make for light work.

Catholic Ministries Appeal – Have you made your gift to the CMA? Our goal is $14,465.00 and we are just short of our goal. Have you made your pledge to this very worthwhile fund drive? If not, there is still time to help us reach our goal. There are pledge cards on the tables at the entrance to each aisle. If you have already mailed yours in, we thank you.

Ladies of the Parish – Please mark your calendar for Saturday, May 15 for Woman's Day: Body, Mind and Spirit in Trinity Center. Treat yourself to time away from everyday activities. Our Trinity Sunday Celebration will be a real cause for celebration this year as we will also be celebrating the 160th anniversary of Holy Trinity Parish, as well as our children making their First Communion. So please mark your calendar for Sunday, May 30 starting with 11:30 a.m. Mass and continuing under the big top on the north parking lot. The parish will provide the food, beverages and entertainment.

An interesting note from our archives. The superintendent of the building process was a practical carpenter and the red brick for the church was donated by two parishioners. It is stated that the laborers were paid in groceries to feed their families.

Prayers for all Mothers

Beginning this weekend there are two baskets on the table at the main aisle of the church. In one basket there will be a variety of hearts. If you would like your mother remembered in prayers on Mother's Day, please put her name on a heart and place it in the second basket. The signed hearts will be placed on a board and displayed in the sanctuary on Mothers' Day.

Holy Year in Honor of St. Joseph - Our St. Joseph Parish in Dayton has been designated by the Archbishop as a temporary shrine in honor of St. Joseph. A pious visit to St. Joseph's church during this holy year is an occasion for receiving a plenary indulgence for those who recite an Our Father and the Creed, along with fulfillment of the other requirements for obtaining an indulgence (prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, sacramental confession, and reception of Holy Communion). Guidelines for receiving the indulgence are on the table near the altar of St. Joseph.

We need some help! The person who was helping with the recording of the Mass on Sunday fell and can't use her hand for awhile. We need a couple people to take turns operating the camera (in the choir loft) at 10:00 every other Sunday. Call office 937-228-9272.

Please keep the following people in your prayers.

Parish Life Center—Capital Campaign Update. Thank you to all parishioners who have made a pledge to our campaign. To date we have pledges for $692,655! We've reached our original goal of $650,000 which makes our stretch-goal of $750,000 all the more attainable. The stretch goal will help us balance rising costs due to an increase in square footage for the building, Covid shortages and project delays. If you have not yet made your pledge please do so. With your help we are building for the future on the foundation of our past!
