REFLECTION

Several years ago, a friend of mine was preparing to go through cancer treatments, and she knew that she needed something to help focus her thoughts as she moved forward into an uncertain future. She decided to memorize the 23rd Psalm and use it as a source of comfort, strength and hope in her journey.

Throughout the centuries, the 23rd Psalm speaks to our hearts as a love letter from God. Taking a closer look at this beautiful psalm we know that the setting of Psalm 23 is a land that is largely desert, where the semi-nomadic shepherd lives with his flock. The shepherd knows where to find grass and fresh water that is essential for life. The psalmist recognizes that God is our true Shepherd. We can look to Jesus, the Good Shepherd to lead us through the desert of life providing for our every need. Staying close to Jesus we will be on the “path of righteousness” and “shall lack nothing.”

Even if we walk in the dark valley of human suffering, we know that Jesus has experienced the same thing and has risen victoriously over these dark forces in life. Even when we have wandered away from the Good Shepherd he is actively present with rod and staff to bring us back, providing safety and protection. When we allow ourselves to be led by the Good Shepherd we see that the closeness of God transforms our heart, we no longer fear, but live with tranquility and peace even in the darkness.

In the spiritual life we can look upon the rod and staff of the shepherd as the virtues in life. Virtue is defined as “an habitual and firm disposition to do the good.” (ccc1803) The theological virtues of faith, hope and charity are the greatest virtues because they are given to us by God and are made known to use by God’s grace. The cardinal virtues of prudence, fortitude, temperance, and justice focus on our relationships and our being in the world, they can be known by human reason. The word cardinal in Latin means “hinge” meaning these virtues open the way to all the other virtues. Virtues are tools that help us to love God and to love our neighbor so that we can give the best of ourselves. In other words, I need to live a virtuous life so that I can love others the way God intends me to love them.

Along the path of life, the Good Shepherd prepares a banquet for us, Jesus spreads the table before us. This image of table is an ancient image from Hebrew times which refers to an animal skin that was spread on the ground like a blanket so that food and fellowship could be shared along the journey. Here relationships of love and friendship are sealed and strengthened. Celebrating these ties, the anointing with perfumed oil refreshes us like the sweet smell of springtime. The overflowing cup in the psalm speaks of God’s abundant generosity. Having been nourished, refreshed and strengthened, the psalmist resumes his journey. Having experienced God’s generous love we believe that God’s goodness and mercy will be with us “all the days of our life,” even into eternal life.

Coming to Mass we are like scattered sheep. We who are far off have been brought near through the Blood of Christ. Through the Blood of Christ, human life and divine life are united. Along this journey we realize that there are shepherds who lead others astray, a reality that has been present since the original sin of Adam and Eve. They look for their own good, their own power and importance. That is why God has given us Jesus, the Good Shepherd to teach us that path we are to follow and what it means to be a good shepherd.

For the next five Sundays we are going to break from our reading of St. Mark’s gospel and spend five Sundays with a single chapter of St. John’s gospel, chapter 6, in which Jesus gives His teaching on the Bread of Life. As the Good Shepherd Jesus will help us see the importance of feeding upon his body and blood, this food from heaven. Without it, we will not have life within us.

Jesus invites us to this--out of the way place--to rest awhile, to be fed by his body and blood so that we can be faithful in our role as shepherds leading those entrusted to us to life!

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

With Gratitude for Fr. Emmanuel Fale – For the last 6 years Fr. Emmanuel has been with us in our pastoral region living and studying among us, celebrating the sacraments, and sharing the gift of God’s love. Fr. Emmanuel has finished his Doctoral work at the University of Dayton and will be returning to his home diocese in Cameroon, Africa. Next Sunday, July 25th at the 10:30a.m. Mass at Emmanuel Church, Fr. Emmanuel will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving. After the Mass we will have a chance to thank him for his generous service among us and to wish him well as he begins his new ministry in Cameroon.

Strike The Fire!

Come and see a new thing the Lord is doing in this area July 19th, 21st, 26th, and 28th starting at 6:30pm in the Emmanuel Catholic Church basement. “Strike the Fire!” is the response of members of several Dayton area parishes to promptings of the Holy Spirit. We pray that during these 4 nights, the Father will immerse you (yes, you, child of God!) in his mighty Love, renew your life in his Spirit and hone your spiritual gifts so that you can share the Good News of the risen Jesus joyfully. For more details, see the Emmanuel Facebook page at <https://fb.me/e/1tHcMIRJ1> or call or text Matt Rubio at 571-212-1894. Free will offering at the door if the Spirit moves you. Glory to God!”

Youth Elect Service retreat! Y.E.S. Teens who have completed 6th grade through graduating high school are invited to participate in this apostolic retreat helping seniors with ordinary outdoor chores i.e., yard work, spring cleaning, etc. The retreat begins on Friday, July 30th to get acquainted, distribute work assignments and equipment and to pray. Saturday morning teams will be sent out after the 7:30am Mass at Emmanuel. The fee is $15. Financial Assistance is available. If you are an elderly parishioner and need some help with outdoor chores around the house, our Region 7 teens would love to come and help you. Adults are needed to serve as crew leaders. Crew leaders can be college freshman through retiree age. To request help for your house project, or to volunteer as a Youth Worker or Adult Crew leader, please contact Lynda Middleton at 937-228-1223 or lyndamiddleton9@gmail.com or Fr. Matt at mattkeller1988@gmail.com.

Open Wide Our Hearts – Video & Discussion – The Social Action and African American Pastoral offices of the archdiocese have created a video for viewers to explore how the U.S. Catholic Church has addressed racism and learn more about the most recent USCCB pastoral letter on racism, Open Wide Our Hearts. View the video at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-0T4jt0F9PI>. To join a conversation about the video, email amusgrave@catholicaoc.org for the link.

Beacons of Light – is a multiyear process of pastoral planning for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. “Families of Parishes” (the new term replacing “Pastoral Regions”) is a group of parishes coming together as one faith community. Each Family of parishes will create a pastoral plan that addresses six guiding principles, in conformity with the established planning parameters.

A Pastoral Planning Pathway will guide the development of this plan. The Pathway will map out the steps each Family of Parishes will take to come together as a faith community. It will include incremental milestones to help the Family of Parishes move toward becoming one parish with different worship sites. Resources, training, and support will be provided to pastors and their leadership transition teams as they follow the Pathway, create and implement the pastoral plan for their Family of Parishes. The Families of Parishes will be announced at the end of September with each Family of Parishes developing their pastoral plan by June 2022. For further information please go to: www.catholicaoc.org/beacons.

A Bicentennial History of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati by Fr. David Endres. This book, through a series of vignettes, explores the people and places of the Archdiocese: the zeal of Father Stephen T. Badin, who brought the sacraments to Native Americans on the land that is today the University of Notre Dame; the witness of Archbishop John B. Purcell, who courageously spoke against slavery; the vision of pioneer social worker Margaret McCabe, who established boys' and girls' homes in Cincinnati; and the Italian-born Sister of Charity Blandina Segale, who served immigrants and whose cause for sainthood is advancing. This is the story of Catholic life and leadership in one of the nation's oldest and most illustrious dioceses, the legacy of two hundred years of the Catholic faith in Southwest Ohio and beyond.
