FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

Every year on the next-to-the last weekend in October we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Our observance of this special day joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith, recommitting ourselves to our common vocation through Baptism to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Today's second collection provides for the building up of over one thousand mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, hope, and peace.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel."

On this World Mission Sunday, we also celebrate the feast of St. Gaspar del Buffalo (October 21st). Since this feast is a Solemnity for the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, we are able to transfer the feast to the nearest Sunday so that we may celebrate it with our local communities. Saint Pope John XIII called St. Gaspar "the true and greatest missionary and apostle of the devotion to the Most Precious Blood in the world."

In speaking about the spirituality of St. Gaspar, St. Pope John Paul II noted, "the Most Precious Blood of our Lord has always been the object of a special attention on the part of all the Saints: it is the school of sanctity, of justice, of love." "In a society which too often ignores the signs of the presence of God, you must be the word that knocks at the door of every human heart, so that it may open to receive the Savior. In a society which often fails to uphold human dignity, especially the dignity of the poor, you must awaken the voice of conscience that sustains the primacy of truth and love."

(Address to CPPS, 1989)

In our Gospel reading, Jesus begins his missionary work by quoting from the Prophet Isaiah. Jesus will bring glad tidings to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind. In the waters of Baptism, each of us have been anointed to continue the missionary work of Jesus, to respond to the cry of the blood in our day. This image is in reference to the lesson of Cain and Abel in the book of Genesis. Cain killed his brother out of resentment and the Lord said, "Listen: your brother's blood cries out to me from the soil!" (Gn 4:10) The blood of Abel continues to cry out today through the many ways that the dignity of all life is disrespected.

St. Gaspar responded to the cry of the blood in his own day. He began his missionary work in the ashes of the Napoleonic revolution which sought to destroy the Church. Beyond the need for governmental reform, St. Gaspar was convinced of the need for moral renewal among the people. He noted, "We live in times in which the whole world needs to be cleansed in the Blood of the Lamb." He believed that the Blood of Christ had the power to awaken in the faithful the desire for perfection and at the same time helps them to attain it.

Being a missionary today does not necessitate going off to a foreign land to bring the Good News of God's reconciling love. The word missionary simply means, "one who is sent." In a world where so much divides us, each of us has a responsibility to continue the mission of Jesus right here at home by reaching out to the poor, to those who are blind to the dignity of all life, and to those enslaved by addictive or dysfunctional behavior.

ANGELO'S REFLECTION Continued...

Where do you hear the cry of the blood in your particular corner the world? How can you respond to that cry of suffering and need? Just as the Blood of Christ flowed from his wounds as a stream of mercy and life for the world, so too we are called to be a stream of mercy, hope and renewal to those in need. By contemplating the new life we have been given through the Blood of Christ, a gift given to us at each Mass, we are sent to be that life-giving blood of Christ for others. May God strengthen us to be joyful and faithful missionaries of the Gospel each day!

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The final configuration of the Families of Parishes will be announced sometime around Thanksgiving. Once the new Families of Parishes are set, we will enter a pastoral planning process that will lead us to the implementation of our new Family of Parishes which will take several years to accomplish.

Archbishop Schnurr has asked everyone in the Archdiocese to keep this challenging but necessary endeavor in our prayers. He said, "It is critically important that we earnestly seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit so that we might together discern the best path forward with humility and courage. Please join me in asking for the intercession of our Blessed Mother, to whose care we have entrusted our archdiocese, that God continue to bless us with His presence and His love." Let us pray:

Mary, Mother of the Church and our Mother, present our prayer of thanksgiving to your Son.
Beg from Him the graces we need to be faithful disciples who follow Him with enthusiasm and joy.
May our witness to the love of God bear fruit in our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts.
Teach us to be God's joyful witnesses,
to radiate Christ in all we do,
so that all people might know, love and follow your Son through this life and into the next.
Amen.

Your Help is Needed In the Cause for Life.

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) is urging Americans to contact their senators to oppose Senate Bill 1975, the so-called Women's Health Protection Act. The Senate is expected to vote on it soon. Archbishop Joseph Naumann, Chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities, called this bill "the most extreme pro-abortion bill our nation has ever seen."

Contact Senators Portman and Brown to urge them to oppose this bill. The easiest method is to use e-mail by going to the website of the USCCB at <https://www.usccb.org>. Open Issues and Actions, select Take Action from the list, click on Find Legislation, then click on Proceed to go to the USCCB's Action Center. Once there select Take Action, then find the issue related to the Women's Health Protection Act. Click on it and it will take you to a page where more information about this radical abortion bill is available. On the right side of the page, both Ohio Senators can be contacted by composing your own message or using the pre-written messages. If you don't have e-mail, call Senator Portman at 1-800-205-6446 (OHIO) and Senator Brown at 1-888-896-6446 (OHIO).

Please join Dayton Council 500 Knights of Columbus members, their families and guests for a turkey dinner on November 7 from 1-2:30pm, serving stops at 2:00. Also, it would be appreciative if a plate of deserts/cookies be generously brought for all to share. Children ages to 12 are free, teenagers 13 to 19 are $5.00 and a family is $25. A 50/50 raffle will be sold. Beverages are available and complimentary. Please RSVP at 937-558-9311 by MONDAY, Nov. 1st or email Mel melvinmolik@yahoo.com.
