FR. ANGLEO'S REFLECTION

I believe most people would agree there's nothing like a good party to add a little spice to life. This was certainly true in 1st century Palestine where most people lived difficult lives laboring day after day. Once in a while the dreary cycle of work, eat and sleep was broken up by a wedding feast that involved the whole village and lasted several days.

This is the scene of our gospel as we reflect upon the wedding feast of Cana. Imagine the murmurs from the crowd as word began to spread that the wine had run out! Just when things should be happiest, celebrating the gift of a new family, the wine jugs run dry. Once Mary hears that the wine is gone she instinctively turned to her son. Having lived with him for around thirty years she knew that He would not let her down.

Maybe there was something in the communication between Jesus and his mother that St. John could not put into words, that body language between people who know each other so well that they can communicate in ways that do not need words. A smile, a look, a small gesture can be enough to convey a message. Mary says: "They have no wine." Jesus says, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?" To an outsider this response could appear unkind, but maybe a smile or a look on his face told Mary that he would do what she asked him to do. That is why Mary simply says, "Do whatever he tells you."

The same God who keeps the heavens and the earth in motion is also concerned with the worldly problem of a wedding feast that has run out of wine. With this miracle of the wedding feast of Cana we can see that God inserts himself into our daily lives and responds with an abundance that is beyond what we could imagine. It's the shortage of wine that becomes the means for new life.

Early in John's gospel we are given a glimpse of the power of God at work transforming life. Ordinary water becomes wine. Ordinary people become faithful disciples. Ordinary wine becomes the blood of Christ. Death will become everlasting life. Transformation is key to our spiritual life.

This image is also found in our reading from the Prophet Isaiah. Even when things looked hopeless, after years of captivity, the Israelites were returning home to Jerusalem. Their city was a wreck. They were discouraged and depressed. Isaiah the prophet offers the people of God a vision of a future full of hope. Isaiah uses the image of marriage to speak of the intimate love and trust that God has for his people. When left to our human power alone we will always come up short. When we allow God's life and power to be at work within us there is an abundance that satisfies every human need.

One way the abundance of God is revealed is through the gifts of the Spirit identified by St. Paul. The gifts of wisdom, healing, prophecy, teaching, mighty deeds and discernment are but a few of the many gifts the Spirit gives to individuals for the benefit of the whole community. No one gift is better than the others. When we share the spiritual gifts the abundance of God's grace is revealed.

Anyone who cooks knows that the secret of a good stew is found in the sauce. In a stew you put together water, carrots, potatoes, onions, celery, salt and beef and bring it to a boil. In the cooking process, each of the ingredients shares a bit of its flavor to make the sauce. In a similar way, when each of us shares our gift or talent as a community of believers, our lives are enriched and we see the abundant love of God revealed. As we share God's love and grace the world is transformed more and more into the original dream God had in mind for our world.

Just as the choice wine Jesus made was served at the end of the wedding feast of Cana, so too, the Lord is saving the best for last when we join Him for the great wedding feast of heaven. Whenever we live in union with Jesus and one another, we can be sure that the best is yet to come.

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

It is time to kick off the 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal throughout the archdiocese! The CMA is our opportunity each year to support the work of six vital ministries all of which operate right here in our archdiocese.

Also, if we exceed our parish goal for the CMA, 50% of our over-goal comes back to the parish to be used towards the needs of our local parishes.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's CMA. Your help is needed as we stand with the thousands of people served throughout our archdiocese. For more information or to donate online, please visit CatholicAOC.org/CMA. Thank you!

The application period runs through February 6, 2022. To apply visit <https://factsmgt.com/>. To learn more visit <http://www.catholicbestchoice.org/>.

The Worldwide Synod - The Holy Father, in seeking to hear from all the People of God on how to better bring the Mission of the Church to the world, is calling for a synod. To start, he is asking for all dioceses throughout the world to conduct local meetings to discuss themes relating to this topic.

Who are the People of God? It is all the baptized. That means not only the lay faithful, those in religious orders, and the clergy, but it also means those who are poor, disabled, migrants and immigrants, elderly, young adults, those who no longer practice the faith, and minorities to name a few. In other words, everyone. Did you know that when you were baptized, you were called to a priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission to bring the good news of salvation and discipleship to all? Coming together to discuss how to better further the mission of the Church is where the Holy Spirit can work powerfully.

There will be meetings throughout the Archdiocese in January and February. Our local meeting will be Thursday, February 10th at 7 pm, at St. Albert the Great. Please consult the Archdiocesan website www.catholicaoc.org and click on the Synod tab to learn more. There you will find an opportunity to sign up to participate. If February 10th isn't convenient, you can sign up for another nearby meeting on a different date. If you know someone who has left the faith, invite them to participate too!

Welcome to the newest member of our parish family, Robert Preston Drake, baptized at Holy Trinity this past Sunday. Congratulations to the proud parents, Jeremy and Angela!

What Is That Doodad Called? A Catholic Church is more than a building, it is a worship space filled with signs and symbols of our faith. We use sacred vessels, vestments, and linens that at times seem and appear to be ordinary but are sacred, special, and extraordinary that have technical names that sometimes we can so easily forget. On Sunday, January 30th after the 11:30 Mass, Fr. Matt is offering a workshop/tour on the sacredness inside our church for our sacristans, ministers at Mass, or for anyone that might be interested. Please RSVP to the parish office by January 27, 2022.

One hour and five minutes later, with the help of a small but hardworking crew all the Christmas decorations were down and put away. Thanks to Fr. Angelo, Ed and Kevin Joyce, Art Michilini, Dave Shoemaker, Andrew and Sarah Becker, Amy Wiedeman and Patsy Martin – a job well done!
