FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

Do you know what the first question of the Bible is? It is found in the Book of Genesis 3:9 "The Lord God then called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?" It's an important question for us today. Where are you in relation to God...to your family...to your neighbor...to your church...to your country? Where are you?

- Isaiah recognized that he was a man of unclean lips & wickedness. And yet, God touches his mouth and removes his sin.
- St. Paul was one who persecuted the Church of God until God breaks into his life with a wake-up call and Paul becomes God's point man in spreading the Gospel to the Gentiles.
- In today's Gospel we see that the disciples have worked hard all day long and yet God wanted something different from them, to cast out into the deep and bring people to God rather than being fishermen.

It's important to go back to that first question in the bible over and over again because we can easily get caught up in the drama of life or become consumed by a busy schedule or drained by sickness and forget who we are and whose we are.

Our true identity is to be found in God. This identity we have as children of God is not anything that we can earn, attain, accomplish or work up to, it is gift given to us by the love of God. This love has been revealed to us through the gift of the Precious Blood of Jesus, a love that reflects the dignity of all life. As a child of God each of us has a vocation, a calling from God.

God has chosen you and me, sinful and imperfect people to keep this message of hope strong and clear! When you stop and think about it, it's amazing how much confidence God has in us! Maybe it's because God can see deeper—God knows the potential within each of us just as he could see the potential in Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter. Yet so often in life we're fishing for the wrong things...like self-satisfaction, power and control or a life without problems or pain and we come up empty.

Living the Christian life is a lot like fishing, we throw a line out into the deep and don't know for sure what's going on down there below the surface. Sometimes even with the greatest skill we come up short. Take Peter for example, he worked all night long and caught nothing. Then Jesus instructs him to put out into the deep and to lower the nets. When they followed the Lord's command, they caught so many fish their nets began to tear apart.

I can image that all of us can relate to this experience of God stepping into our life and asking us to try all over again. We think, "What's the use, nothing is going to change." Then God surprises us with a new opportunity, a new way of seeing, a reason to be hopeful. Not because of anything we have done, but because we followed God's lead.

In their journey of faith Isaiah, Paul and Peter all experienced a vision of the Lord that brought them to their knees; not out of fear but in recognition of the majesty of God which overwhelmed them. It's like living in a world powered by 20-watt bulbs. When you have that epiphany experience of God at work in your life, the world is as bright as a 100-watt bulb. In this light we see more clearly our imperfections and deem ourselves unworthy to come before the Lord. Yet, God looks deep within our hearts and draws upon the untapped potential within each of us.

What we come to see in the journey of faith is that sinfulness does not exclude us from being called by God to serve Him. Saints don't always start out as saints, just look at Isaiah, Paul and Peter. Thankfully, there is hope for all of us! God will do amazing things through us when we respond to his call and say, "Here I am Lord—send me."
