Fr. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

This is the third and final week of the "Scrutinies" for those who will soon enter the Catholic Church at Easter. If you recall, in the previous two weeks we reflected upon Jesus as "Living Water" and Jesus as the "Light of the World." Today, we reflect upon Jesus who is the "Resurrection and the Life."

In our first reading the Prophet Ezekiel was responding to the death and destruction that came from the Babylonian exile. In a vision given in the verses just before our First Reading, Ezekiel prophesies over the dry bones of the people of God that lay scattered across the ground like sticks. "Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord." And as he prophesies, he hears the rattling of bones coming together, with muscle and skin being added to the bones. From the four winds the Spirit comes with the breath of life and God says to the people of Israel, "I will put my Spirit in you that you may live!"

In a similar image, we see Jesus standing at the entrance of the tomb of his friend Lazarus. His lifeless body, like those dry bones, emphasizing the finality that is found in the face of death. Here Jesus comes face to face with the human condition, the terrible, heart-breaking experience of the death of someone we love. Jesus is filled with deep emotion at the death of his friend and the weeping of Martha and the other Jews. We are told "He became perturbed and deeply troubled." We all know the feeling, a kind of anger and sorrow mixed together as we wrestle with the untimely death of someone we love.

Jesus loved Lazarus, Martha and Mary just as he loves all of us, his beloved. The glory to be revealed is the Truth that Divine Love is more powerful than death. At this point, Martha simply sees Jesus as a holy person who is close to God. She will soon see that he is more than that, Jesus IS Divine Life. He is the great I AM who gave the breath of life to humanity at the beginning of creation; the great I AM who breathed life into the people of Israel, the great I AM who will breathe life into Lazarus.

Jesus invites Martha to dig deep into her heart as she is confronted with the death of her brother. He says to her: "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." Then Jesus asks Martha to make his statement her own. Taking the journey from the head to the heart, Martha replies, "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God."

St. Paul helps us to see that this story is also about all of us when he wrote, "The Spirit of God who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you." And so, God is calling us to come out of the tomb of our sin, our fears & worries, disappointments & loss, loneliness or depression, our doubt or unbelief, whatever is lifeless or like dry bones inside of us. Jesus came that we might have life, today and for all eternity. Remember, the opposite of life is not physical death. The opposite of life is sin. Sin keeps us from the life Jesus has won for us.

Realizing that Jesus can make all things new, what guides your mind? Do you focus on the defeats of the past or the hope of the future? The Lord once spoke through the prophet Isaiah during a time of devastation saying, "Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; See, I am doing something new!"

In a world of change and uncertainty we can trust in God's promise to lead us to life. To help us on our journey Jesus gives us his body and blood in Holy Communion as a foretaste of what will be in the banquet feast of heaven. Today, break free from the tomb of darkness and sin that traps you and let the Spirit who dwells within you help you to see with new eyes the fullness of life you share in Christ. Remember, each day God is doing something new in you!

Dear Parishioners,

I have received my new assignment. On July 1st I will become the new pastor of St. John the Baptist Church in Glandorf, Ohio. I am excited and nervous about beginning this new assignment. Fr. Tony Fortman, C.P.P.S. is the current pastor of St. John the Baptist in Glandorf, and he will be a new Parochial Vicar in our northeast family of parishes. He is a holy, down to earth priest and loves the Lord. As I was discerning with community, he was an excellent mentor for me and is a good friend of mine. He will do an excellent job ministering to the new family of parishes. Let's hold each other in prayer as we prepare for this time of transition.

Peace, Fr. Matt Keller, C.P.P.S.
