FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

Cardinal Bernardin once told this story about a second-grade teacher who decided to put on an Easter play. All of the children were given parts, although some of the parts were quite insignificant. One boy, for example, was given the part of the stone that was placed in front of Jesus's tomb. The teacher told this child that when it was time for the stone to be rolled aside so that Jesus could rise from the dead, all he needed to do was to move his hands in a circle and then step to the side.

The first time they had a rehearsal, the boy got a running start and began to do a series of summersaults at the end of which he knocked down several children. The teacher took him aside and told him that it simply was not necessary to be so dramatic. It would be sufficient for him merely to move his hands in a circle and then step to the side.

At the next rehearsal, the boy did the same things—knocking the other children aside as he did his summersaults. The teacher decided that, rather than try to reason with him, she would offer him a different role instead. First, she offered him the part of one of the soldiers, but he replied that he wanted to be the stone! Then she offered him the part of Peter. He thought a little longer about this possibility; but again, he refused insisting that he wanted to be the stone!

Finally, in exasperation, she offered him the highly coveted role of Jesus himself. The boy gave this careful thought before telling her that he still wanted to be the stone! When she asked him why he insisted on being the stone, he proudly replied: "Because when I let Jesus out of the tomb, it feels so good!"

For 40 days of Lent, we have been following the ancient practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. During this journey we invited God to help us roll away the stone of our hardened heart, a stone that has kept us from encountering the Risen Lord and entombed the gifts of the Holy Spirit within us.

The most remarkable event in all of history is the resurrection of Jesus. This was not the mere resuscitation of a lifeless body that would die again like Lazarus, but the victorious rising of Jesus who lives forever. "Death no longer has power over Him." (Rom. 6:9) This truth powerfully affected the lives of the disciples. They became fearless and bold and focused on telling others about this most amazing gift that has been given to us.

Today, we are called to have the enthusiasm and joy of that little boy allowing the life we have received from Jesus to be freely shared. Can we allow the love of Jesus to move us beyond our fear, confusion, hurt and doubt? Easter calls us to live in the Light of Christ, a light that takes away all darkness. As we renew our baptismal promises today, we can't help but feel the joy of that little boy because our "yes" to these promises rolls back the stone of darkness and reveals Jesus, the Light of Life. May you experience the joy that comes from proclaiming the truth that Jesus is risen!

A Blessed Easter! Fr. Angelo, Fr. Matt, Br. Matt, Fr. Ken and all the staff in our family of parishes are grateful for your commitment to sharing the faith and pray that this Easter season will be a time of spiritual growth as we celebrate the life we share in the Risen Lord. Thank you to everyone who helped to prepare for and celebrate our Holy Week Liturgies. The beauty of the liturgical environment, the music and everyone's participation in the liturgies offered us a glimpse of heaven on earth!

Divine Mercy Sunday at Emmanuel

Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. Emmanuel Church will be hosting an afternoon of prayer in honor of this Feast which was instituted for the Second Sunday of Easter by Pope John Paul II in the year 2000. The message of Divine Mercy was given to Saint Faustina of Poland. During the Octave of Easter, we are invited to call upon the Divine Mercy of Jesus to guide us as we pray for the dying, for forgiveness and mercy, for conversion, for healing or for renewed hope.

Schedule at Emmanuel for April 24, 2022:

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM Confessions, beginning with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
1:15 PM Rosary
1:45 PM Benediction
2:00 PM Mass
3:00 PM Three O'Clock Prayer, Chaplet of Mercy

Pray For Vocations - As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives. He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to consecrated life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to the priesthood or consecrated life. May 8 is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. For resources, check out the World Day of Prayer website at <https://worlddayofprayerforvocations.com>.

Religious Brothers Day - Religious Brothers Day (RBD) is Sunday, May 1. This day offers the opportunity to celebrate and give thanks for religious Brothers in our lives, including 95 here in our archdiocese. It also offers an opportunity to consider how we all invite, walk with, and encourage young people to discern God's call in their life. Please visit www.religiousbrothers.org to download prayers, prayer services, reflections, and other resources to celebrate RBD.
