DEACON RUSTY'S REFLECTION

More than meets the eye!

Can you imagine being with our resurrected Lord during the 40 days prior to his Ascension? How incredible that would have been! To listen to him teaching and answering questions, following him to Bethany, hearing his final words, and then watching Him ascend triumphantly to take his place where He was before, at the Father's right hand.

But, as incredible as that would have been, our faith is even more incredible than it seems! You see, nothing in the Bible is insignificant, especially when it comes to Our Lord! Not only what he says, but also what he does, as well as where and how he does it signifies a sacred truth he is trying to teach. Let's dive deeper into the significance of the events leading up to the Ascension, when we do, we will see the Ascension in a new light, one that makes it all the more glorious!!!

That the Lord spent 40 days teaching the disciples and answering their questions is itself significant. Anytime you hear the number 40 in the Bible, it is meant to bring to mind the 40 years Israel was in the desert. During that time, Old Testament Israel was just starting to learn how to listen to and obey God through Moses. In just the same way, Our Lord spent the 40 days after the resurrection teaching the disciples about himself and the way of faith; getting the disciples ready to claim their inheritance as sons and daughters of God, an inheritance that included the honor of bearing witness to him to the world. And we are the fruit of their faithfulness to their inheritance!

Throughout the entirety of his earthly ministry Jesus not only pointed his disciples to the heavenly kingdom, he emphatically and repeatedly told them that he was sent by the Father, that he was the Son of God; and most incredibly, that he and the Father were one. He didn't just say these things, he demonstrated them in the most dramatic and public way he could. For example, to the constant consternation of the Pharisees, he very publicly provoked them by healing on the Sabbath, thereby asserting that he was Lord of the Sabbath, that is, that he was God.

But it was feasts at the Temple that constituted the most dramatic, the most public of his teachings. At the Feast of Tabernacles, for example, Jesus healed many people. Now, Jewish tradition long held that the Messiah would, in fact, appear at this very festival and heal people. In a rite during this same festival, four enormous menorahs were lit at night to illuminate the entire Temple area, not unlike the pillar of fire that the Israelite's followed through the desert. In the light of these menorahs, Jesus proclaimed to the people, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me ... will have the light of life." On the first day of the same feast, water from the pool of Siloam was brought to the Temple with great ceremony. The climax of the feast was a libation offering of this Siloam water poured out before God. Our Lord took this occasion to publicly proclaimed that he was the source of this living water.

During the Feast of the Dedication of the Temple which celebrated the completion and consecration of the Temple in Jerusalem, Jesus proclaimed that he was the Temple not made by human hands that if torn down would be rebuilt in three days! And finally, St. John the Baptist said of Our Lord, "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world," thereby prophetically anticipating the Paschal Sacrifice of the New Covenant and claiming for Our Lord the most sacred of Jewish feasts.

Next, Our Lord led them as far as Bethany which was a few miles from Jerusalem. The reason he stopped at Bethany was because it was a kind of a way-station, a center for caring for the sick, aiding the destitute, and assisting pilgrims on their way to Jerusalem. Furthermore, Bethany is near Mount Olivet, which, according to the Prophet Zechariah, will be the very place Our Lord returns to at His 2nd coming! By ascending from Bethany, He was telling us that this is where we were to wait for him, among the poor and the lowly, and more than that, that we should become poor and lowly ourselves, for that is who He will come to when he returns! And that is where he must find us when he returns; that is who we must be when he returns!

Our Lord then gloriously ascended to take his place, as before, at the Father's right hand, from which he will return in the last days. We have received the power Our Lord spoke of, for the Holy Spirit has come upon each one of us. We, then, are His witnesses. We are to bear witness to him in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Save the Date! Fr. Matt will be leaving for his new assignment on July 1st and we want to send him off in style. An open-house reception is being planned to thank him for his 5-years of service to the Downtown Dayton Region on June 19th from 12-2:00 at the Knights of Columbus hall on Bainbridge Street. Mark your calendar, you won't want to miss this celebration! As part of our sendoff, we would like to create a scrapbook of memories for Fr. Matt to remember all the great times we shared together. Please take an index card from the table in the back of church and write down a funny story, wonderful event or other memories. Feel free to include a small picture (4x6) with the index card and drop it in the collection basket or in the basket provided in the back of church by June 12. If you have any digital photos of Fr. Matt you'd like to share, send them to Lynn lynnwilmes3@gmail.com or Patsy plmartin937@gmail.com and we will include them in the digital presentation that will be showing at the reception.

First Friday Prayer Group – will meet Friday, June 3rd at the St. Joseph Parish Center, from 9:00 – 11:30 AM. The presentation will be, "Pentecost Prep – The Pearl of Great Price." Jesus Ascended and promised to send The Paraclete to those praying locked in the Upper Room. They received "Power" to carry forth what He taught them and passed it on to us. Where do you stand/ kneel in these days of trial, travail, confusion, stress and chaos? God has provided the plan and the gifts of the Holy Spirit needed to fortify and mobilize us to spread the Good News. What can we do personally and communally to pass on what we have received? Mother Mary is clarifying it for us. Hosted by Daughters and Sons of The Immaculate Conception. Facilitated and Moderated by Francesca Franchina OCDS; MSE. More Info? Contact VM 937-298-4824 or Team Administrator/Materials Jean Eagan 248-417-9568.

Our regional Emmanuel SVdP Conference keeps a "stash" of household items that we give directly to our neighbors in need. We are running very low on certain items: sheets (twin, full and queen), blankets of any size, pots and pans, dishes and silverware. If you have any of these items in good, usable condition, we would be delighted to pass them on to folks in need. Items can be left in the back of any of the three churches. The need is great! Thank you so much! Questions? Call Bill at 937-672-8442.
