FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

During his acceptance speech in 1960 for the Presidential nomination, John F. Kennedy said, "We are not here to curse the darkness, but to light the candle that can guide us thru that darkness to a safe and sane future." This image originated from a quote by William L. Watkinson in 1907 when he wrote "It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness."

In the journey of life, we come up against many formidable opponents who do not share the values and beliefs that we hold. Look at the Prophet Jeremiah. He was no stranger to conflict and division. His message challenging the princes of Israel has rubbed powerful people the wrong way and they decide to get rid of him, throwing him into a cistern leaving him to die. Jeremiah could have told the king what he wanted to hear, but that was not the truth. Jeremiah followed God's call to bring light into the world and paid the price for his decision to be faithful to the Lord.

None of us needs to go looking for trouble to find ourselves caught up in struggles and conflict. Simply living the truth of the Gospel will put us at odds with the culture and the world around us. The fire of Truth burned brightly in the heart of Jesus. It was something that cause great anguish in his heart because he knew that his mission would lead to his death, and yet He pressed-on sacrificing everything to gain for us the price of our salvation. Jesus wanted all of us to be with him in heaven, to one day experience the joy of the victory feast of heaven.

Promising to be with us always, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us see the need for self-purification; the Spirit of fire that burns away fear, self-gratification, paralyzing doubt, or unhealthy thoughts that rob us of peace. God's purifying love and grace helps us to see the error of our ways and to stand up for what is right. Do we curse the darkness or can we be the Light of Christ for others?

Throughout the years we've heard people say, "Be the change you want to see in the world." This is another way of being light in the midst of darkness. For one student, she worked to change the culture of her school from "Me" to "We." Another person collected plastic water bottles that led to a movement in their town to recycle. Still another person wanted to protect the life of the unborn and this developed into a center to help women in crisis pregnancies. Standing against a culture of individualism or materialism or a culture of death is not easy. Do we walk the way of the cross with Jesus or simply go with the flow of the world or culture?

Just as in the life of Jeremiah and Jesus, there are times when living the truth of the gospel will put us at odds with the people closest to us. This is where the phrase "tough love" offers some direction. Maybe a family member is trapped in an addictive behavior and you come to see that their life is moving in the direction of destruction. Rather than continuing to enable this addictive or destructive behavior you offer them tough love, choosing to do what is right even though they may not like it, causing division in the family.

There are times when discipleship is costly. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews offers us encouragement by reminding us of the "great cloud of witnesses" who have lived their lives with integrity and truth. Be inspired by the lives of the saints. Follow the example of the holy men and women you have met in life. They are our heroes! Just as they remained strong in the midst of conflict, we too can remain strong by keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus.

Standing with Jesus and living in God's Truth is an essential part of living our baptismal calling. Even though this will at times bring us into situations of conflict with others we need not be afraid. Recall the words of Jesus, "I am with you always until the end of time."

Message from Fr. Emmanuel - Dear parishioners, I am doing well amidst the crisis. I am able to execute a number of projects thanks to the help I continue to get. The church project in my village is an enormous one. We are almost through with the foundation. I shall have the opportunity to share the pictures with you later on. I have carried out a solar system project in my school. Some renovations are going on now: there is the water project which is ongoing, the draining of septic tanks and building new slabs to cover them; making of new beds and benches for students. Extend my sincere and hearty greetings to those who come for the novena on Tuesdays and to the parish at large if you can. They are all in my prayers. Accept greetings from my family and friends as well. Many blessings!

On behalf of Archbishop Schnurr, all the ministries supported by the CMA, and the thousands of people served by those ministries, we extend our sincerest thanks to all CMA donors who have made this the Best CMA Year Ever with over $6 million pledged!

Coming to Emmanuel in September is our first Pivotal Player, St. Augustine. "Through his literary genius and spiritual perception, we will learn how Augustine allowed countless people over the centuries to see their own stories of sin and grace in his. His own restless heart has become the paradigm for spiritual seekers across the ages. Writing at a moment when one of the great civilizations of the world was collapsing, he taught us that we are finally citizens of a higher society, one based on the right praise of God, and that we are therefore, resident aliens in any of the earthly cities that we inhabit. This crucial distinction has helped the Church survive as worldly cultures have risen and fallen." Questions, Call Charlie or Susie, 937-890-6262.

Registration for our CCD program and Open House will begin next Sunday, August 21st after the 10:30am Mass. Coffee and donuts will be served. We will also have representatives from our various commissions present seeking volunteers to help with the activities of our parish.

A Mass celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation is scheduled at Emmanuel on March 26, 2023. We will have confirmation preparation in our Saturday CCD classes and in the Thursday homeschool co-op. If you will be doing preparation for the sacrament at home, please contact Brother Matt, brothermatcpops@gmail.com.

Thank you to those who have called to volunteer at the block party on the afternoon of October 9th. We still need lots of help. 175th Series - Did You Know: The two pillars at the front of the church weigh 20 tons each. The pillars were carved by hand. A rigging was set up on what was called gin poles. The ropes are fastened to the top of the stone columns and by a series of pulleys to the top and bottom of the pole. Two men did the winding on what they called a hand crab, a sort of a geared drum, a slow process all done by hand.

Did You Know: The "new" church was concentrated by Archbishop Henry K. Moeller on the Feast of St. Joseph on March 19, 1911. At this point not all the items were in the church.

An update on our capital campaign for the parish center. We are two and a half years into our capital campaign and I'd like to thank everyone who has contributed to the campaign. Pledges for just the parish center not including bricks and furnishings are $774,868 and the amount collected is $620,601. Thank you to everyone who has completed their pledge and to those who continue to make donations. Your support of the parish center is a wonderful testament to your love of St. Joseph parish.
