FR. ANGELO'S REFLECTION

Alleluia! The Lord is Risen! As we celebrate this wonderful Easter season we recognize that the gift of the resurrection is more than simply an event that happened to Jesus many years ago or something that we hope to experience in the future when our bodies will be raised to new life. The gift of the resurrection is a gift that has the power to impact every moment of our life. Since Christ is risen from the dead we hold a difference script in our hands. What was thought to be the end has been made new. This is true for broken relationships, lost opportunities, fearful encounters of the unknown and any challenge that comes our way as the result of sin or death. Jesus says to us today, "See, I make all things new!"

Easter reminds us that it is never too late to start over. With a willing spirit, we roll back the stone that entombs us, that keeps us from becoming the person God created us to be. To stay in the tomb of our unbelief is to deny our belief that God has the last word and that word is life! Yes, some people get stuck in the silence of God interpreting it to mean that God does not care about their suffering. It is important to remember that God has not come to rescue us from pain and suffering and death; God has come to redeem us, to transform our lives. This calls us to a deeper awareness of the importance of faith, hope and trust in God, to remain faithful especially when nothing makes sense.

The Scribes and Pharisees thought that they had succeeded in silencing Jesus, the Word Made Flesh. But when the appointed time had come, God's voice came through loud and clear, "Peace be with you." "Do not be afraid." Easter teaches us that we must learn patience in our weakness, to listen for the voice of the Risen Lord in ways we least expect.

In Matthew's gospel, Jesus instructs Mary Magdalene to go to the disciples and tell them, "He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him." Why go to Galilee? Fr. Ronald Rolheiser notes that for the disciples, Galilee was a place involving the heart. "Galilee is the dream, the road of discipleship that they had once walked with Jesus, and that place and time when their hearts had most burned with hope and enthusiasm."

This image of returning to a familiar place is like an account in John's gospel when Jesus goes back to the Jordan River, to the place where he was baptized. Here Jesus heard the voice of His Father say, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased, listen to Him." Before his passion, Jesus returned to this familiar place, a place of identity so that he could hear once again the Father's dream for him.

In returning to Galilee the disciples went back to where it all began to renew their hopes and dreams as disciples of Jesus. Their call had not changed; it's just that they will be led in a different way. The same is true for us. On this Easter Sunday, as we renew our baptismal promises and are sprinkled with the Easter water which reminds us of our baptism, our hopes and dreams are renewed. Jesus appears to us, giving us his Body and Blood to strengthen us, to reassure us that he is risen and is with us. Alleluia! Let us rejoice today that he is truly risen.

In Gratitude... Thank you to all who helped to make our Holy Week liturgies so beautiful and for all who participated in our times of prayer. We are truly blessed! As we celebrate the unconditional love of God this Easter we give thanks for the life we share today and the life that is to come. May the presence of the Risen Lord be a source of hope, joy and peace for you and your family throughout this Easter Season. God bless you! Fr. Angelo, Fr. Seraphine, Br. Matt & Fr. Ken.

Composed in the 11th century, "Victimae Paschali Laudes" is the glorious sequence sung on Easter Sunday and optionally on each day of the Easter Octave. This triumphant chant is one of four sequences in liturgical use, along with Veni, Sancte Spiritus (Pentecost), Lauda Sion (Corpus Christi), and Stabat Mater (Our Lady of Sorrows). Blessing of Easter Food - "God of glory, the eyes of all turn to you as we celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death. Bless us and this food of our Easter meal. May we who gather at the Lord's table continue to celebrate the joy of his Resurrection and be admitted - finally to his heavenly banquet. Grant this through Christ our Lord." Amen. (Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers, USCCB)

Children as Easter Observers. As the Easter season begins, challenge children to be "Easter Observers." Ask them to use all of their senses to observe, experience, and record as many signs of new life as possible as the Easter season begins—both at home or in their neighborhood. Encourage them to listen for the ringing of bells, the singing of "Alleluia," the sounds of birds. They can see and smell the flowers that we use to decorate our parishes, homes, and gardens. They may find the gold and white colors of the priest's Easter vestments in their churches. After giving children some time to be "Easter Observers," invite them to share at the dinner table some of the signs of Easter that they have spotted. (From: Sadlier Connect)

Start gathering together your no longer wanted, but still very usable household items! We are having a Rummage Sale Saturday, May 6 in Trinity Center.
