Solomon's Wisdom

In the first reading from first kings, we see that Solomon asked for wisdom. He could've asked for many things, such as a long life, the life of his enemies, and the life of riches. This shows a dependence on God and the willingness to be led by God's understanding. This pleased God. Even up to today, no one has ever had the wisdom of Solomon.

But as Solomon's life unfolded, he gave into pagan worship, and he married many wives. He gives into the world. He starts out great, but he ends up in a bad place at the end of his life. He does not repent.

In the gospel, Jesus tells us that the kingdom of God is like a treasure buried in the field or a fine pearl. God's word and our faith are very valuable and to be protected. Our faith is to be shared with others. It is not to be hidden because we may worry about what other people think. Many Christian Martyrs gave their life by sharing their faith.

Repentance

You and I have not finished our lives. We may be doing pretty good now in our faith life, but that is not the end of our story. Repentance is so important for the Christian life. We see Judas Iscariot not repenting. We see King Saul not repenting. We see Solomon not repenting. Their lives end terribly because of their pride and a lack of willingness to repent. You and I are humans; we are weak, vulnerable, and sinners. This means that we need God's mercy. We can't earn it. Our pride can keep us from God's mercy. Our pride could keep us from going to confession. We may say, "I have too many things to do today, so I can't go to confession. I can't make time for God, or I will get behind." Please take the opportunity to go to confession at our different parishes. This sacrament allows us to draw closer to Christ and his merciful heart. As long as we keep our eyes on Christ, we will not sink in the water. Keep your eyes on the prize and hold on.

Thank you,

Fr. Anthony Fortman C.P.P.S.

August 8 Special Election

From Archbishop Schnurr: Issue 1 will increase the threshold required for any proposed amendment to the Constitution of Ohio from a simple majority vote to at least a 60% majority vote in order to pass.

Voting Yes

Voting Yes on Issue 1 will make it more difficult to pass any future amendment to the Constitution of Ohio, including this November's ballot initiative seeking an abortion rights constitutional amendment that expands and enshrines abortion at the expense of protections of preborn children and women.

Voting No

Voting No on Issue 1 will maintain the current threshold, making it easier to pass an amendment to Ohio's constitution, including the one coming this November on the abortion expansion amendment.

Prayer for Ohio

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Ohio from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. Father, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life, preserving parental rights, and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

How to Submit Items for Publication in Our Bulletin

Bulletin articles are due Friday at Noon, nine days before the publication date of the Sunday bulletin. For our August 13 bulletin, articles are due Friday, August 4. For the time being, Emmanuel, Holy Trinity and St. Joseph may continue to send information to Mary Beemsterboer: emmparishoffice@gmail.com at Emmanuel. For Precious Blood, St. Paul and St. Rita send information to Joan Macpherson, our Communications Manager: jmacpherson@preciousbloodchurch.org.

Thank you for your time and patience as we continue to develop our Family of Parishes bulletin!

Notes from Emmanuel's Choir Loft

From the Music Director

Today's majestic recessional, "O Worship the King," is adapted from Psalm 104 and set to the tune Hanover, written in the 16th century by William Croft, then organist at Westminster Abbey. Penned by Sir Robert Grant, the text finishes with a duet between the angels above and us here below who, "though feeble [our] lays, with true adoration shall sing to Your praise."

The Kingdom of Heaven is Like...

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus tells the disciples what the Kingdom of Heaven is like. He says it is like a buried treasure, that when a man finds it, he sells everything he has and buys the field where it is hidden. He also says it is like a pearl of great price, that when a merchant finds it he sells all he has and buys it.

These parables tell us how precious the Kingdom of Heaven is. Jesus is explaining that it is more important than anything else in our lives. The men in the parables sold EVERYTHING they had to get the treasures.

But what is the Kingdom of Heaven? Is it a country with a king and subjects? Well it is, sort of, but you can't see it. Jesus is the King and His people are the people who choose Him as their King. The laws of the kingdom are God's laws, and the enemy is the devil who is trying to take all the souls. Always remember that belonging to God's Kingdom is more important than everything else in your life!
